Electricity Cuts Started

French Workers Reject Government Wage Offer

PARIS (AP) — French union officials, management and the government reached agreement on wage issues today to end the nation's 11-day strike, but the immediate response from French workers was "non."

Meetings at big factories in Paris, Lyon, Marseilles and Nantes rejected the settlement and for the first time since the strike began Paris was hit by scattered electricity cuts.

Employees of the state-run gas and electricity company were angry because a meeting on their grievances had been put off.

Union leaders toured the strikebound factories explaining the agreement. The workers shouted their disapproval at the nationalized Renault automobile works and the privately owned Citroen plant.

None of the union leaders would predict whether the 10 million striking workers would accept the pact and end the giant defiance of President Charles de Gaulle's government. But Georges Seguy, secretary general of the Communist-led General Confederation of Workers, said the decisions should be made "in a short time."

Only Partial Success
Seguy said the unions had achieved only partial success in the two nights of negotiating sessions, which lasted a total of 27 hours.

"We have arrived at an ensemble of conclusions which one can say constitutes an agreement," Premier Georges Pompidou told newsmen at the decisive 14-hour session ended at 7:45 a.m.

If the settlement is ratified by the workers, its cost may force De Gaulle to curtail or even abandon such expensive items as his nuclear strike force and large-scale aid to developing countries. He may also have to dig deep into France's hoard of gold which he has been using to put pressure on the dollar and the British pound.

Although the labor front was looking up, Pompidou was

Dr. Spock Trial Enters Second Week At Boston

BOSTON (AP) — What apparently will be a long trial for Dr. Benjamin Spock and four codefendants entered its second week today.

Prosecution testimony in the draft evasion conspiracy case has centered on a meeting last October inside the Department of Justice building in Washington.

An FBI agent from Washington was scheduled to testify for the government following the weekend recess.

On trial with 65-year-old baby doctor are Yale Chaplain William Sloan Coffin Jr., 43; Michael Ferber, 23, a Harvard graduate student; Mitchell Goodman, 44, a New York writer and teacher; and Marcus Raskin, 33, a Washington research director.

If convicted of charges of conspiring to "aid, abet and counsel" youths to avoid the draft they could receive maximum plagued with the possibility of more trouble on the second front of France's crisis, the student rebellion.

Student Problem Unsolved
The National Students' Union called a 24-hour demonstration to begin today against alleged police provocations which it claimed were responsible for the bloody rioting in Paris Thursday and Friday nights.

The Interior Ministry gave the students permission for a street march followed by a meeting at a stadium. Leaders of the students' union pledged that the demonstration would be nonviolent, but radical groups who have been talking revolution refused to join in the pledge.

The premier's tactic has been to give priority to the workers' demands since the general strike is having the more serious effect on the nation's economy and its life.

Presumably the government now will turn to the students' demands for sweeping reform of the antiquated university system. Pompidou has already promised a thorough shakeup and agreed to most of the students' original demands, but they have continued their strike and occupation of their universities, holding marathon discussion sessions at which they argue about how to go about revolutionizing French society.

Teacher Support
The Syndicate of University Teachers announced its support for the new student demonstration. But the Communist party again turned their back on the young rebels, telling its followers to stay away because "new provocations" might hamper achievement of the workers' aims.

The agreement worked out with the labor leaders included:
1. An increase in the minimum hourly wages from 2.2 francs to 3 francs an hour, or from 44 to 60 cents. This will affect 450,000 workers.
2. An across the board wage hike for industrial workers of 7 per cent on June 1 and another 3 per cent on Oct. 1. The unions reportedly asked for 21 per cent.

3. Reduction of the work week from 46-47 hours to 40 without loss in pay. A compromise was reached on the timetable.

4. Management agreed to examine the union demand for lowering of the retirement age from 65 to 60 for men and 55 for women.

5. The unions also apparently won their demands for greater freedom for union activities in the shops.

6. Workers will be advanced 50 per cent of the wages lost during the strike but it must be repaid by the end of the year. The unions had demanded that the strikers be paid for the time lost.

7. Pompidou agreed that the National Assembly would reopen the question of social security benefits lowered in 1967. He said the government could not repeal the law since this was a power of the legislature.

8. The union demand for a tight cost of living clause was postponed until next March.

'Poor' Ready Campaign In Washington

WASHINGTON (AP) — A demonstration at the Agriculture Department headed the tentative agenda for the Poor People's Campaign today, but organizers wouldn't guarantee they could pull it off.

"We just may sit in on Secretary of Agriculture Orville L. Freeman until we persuade him to go with us to Congress," the Rev. James Bevel told a Sunday morning prayer session at Resurrection City, U.S.A.

"I want you to give away anything that might be stolen," he told the estimated 2,300 residents later, "since no one's going to be here because we expect to have the whole city mobilized."

Bevel said the demonstration in support of more federal food programs would probably be rescheduled for Tuesday if it can't be mobilized today.

His announcement was in keeping with Sunday's announcement by the Rev. Ralph David Abernathy, campaign leader, that this week—the third of Resurrection City's brief existence—would see a move "full swing into nonviolent activities."

Sunday was primarily a day for housekeeping and greeting visitors at the campground of little plywood huts that now nearly fills its assigned 15 acres in West Potomac Park, near the Lincoln Memorial.

Two days of broiling weekend sun baked the muddy swamp that engulfed the city last week back to a hard clay surface, and the "city manager," the Rev. Jesse Jackson, declared an open house from 1 p.m. to 6 p.m.

Dozens of visitors strolled slowly down the western frontier-style boardwalk along Abernathy Boulevard, taking pictures of residents lounging in front of their sweltering homes.

A dozen volunteer carpenters, some Negroes in work clothes and some whites wearing hippie-beards and beards, labored over the half-finished day-care center building that sprawls next to the trees in the camp's southeastern corner.

Oregon Vote Awaited By Candidates

Both Parties Have Races In 'Hectic' Primary Election

PORTLAND, Ore. (AP) — Sen. Robert F. Kennedy courted the undecided voter in Oregon today while Sen. Eugene J. McCarthy claimed "every sign" now points to a hefty vote in his column in Tuesday's Democratic presidential primary.

And Republican Richard M. Nixon said supporters of two absent GOP rivals, Govs. Ronald Reagan of California and Nelson A. Rockefeller of New York, are working in tandem in an effort to stop his drive for the White House nomination.

The former vice president said he does not think that effort will succeed, and forecast he will get 55 per cent of the GOP vote Tuesday.

McCarthy Scores
Kennedy and his top lieutenants believe a substantial bloc of Oregon Democrats are still undecided in the final hours of a hectic campaign, and they are concerned because in past outings, McCarthy appeared to have scored well with late-deciding voters.

A McCarthy victory would be rated an upset.

But the Minnesota senator said the reports he received were encouraging. "Every sign I have up to now indicates that I will do very well in this state," he said.

While the candidates traveled, their organizations waged heavy, last-minute television campaigns, concentrating on Portland stations to reach a metropolitan area which accounts for more than half the Democratic registration.

One key question on the minds of the Democratic campaigners: How big a share of the vote will President Johnson capture from people who want Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey to become the nominee?

Tight Race Seen
Both the Kennedy and McCarthy camps indicated their surveys of voter opinion pointed to a tight race. Kennedy has won two past tests from McCarthy, the most recent on May 14 in Nebraska, where he

Talk Report To Be Given LBJ By Vance

PARIS (AP) — North Vietnam charged today that the Paris peace talks had so far failed to achieve any results because the United States has refused to take up "the main aim of these conversations," the end of the bombing of North Vietnam.

The United States accused North Vietnam of giving out distorted figures on American and allied losses in the war.

"We hope that you are not deceiving yourselves," U.S. Ambassador W. Averell Harriman told Ambassador Xuan Thuy.

Today's session, the fifth in two weeks of meetings, lasted for 4 hours and 10 minutes. The next meeting was set for Friday.

U.S. deputy chief negotiator Cyrus R. Vance arranged to leave for Washington to report to President Johnson.

Vance is deputy to Ambassador W. Averell Harriman, chief of the U.S. negotiating team. Harriman and North Vietnamese Ambassador Xuan Thuy started their third week of meetings today in the International Conference Center.

The major issues in the talks

Long-Range Gun Introduced

Viet Fighting Increased By Communist Command

SAIGON (AP) — The enemy command stepped up the pace of battle over the weekend and for the first time introduced Soviet long-range anti-aircraft guns to its beefed up air defenses just north of the demilitarized zone. A U.S. spokesman said 16 of the guns were spotted and air strikes destroyed or damaged them all.

Allied forces reported killing more than 1,000 enemy troops in a weekend of savage fighting from the outskirts of Saigon to the demilitarized zone.

In keeping with Hanoi's proclaimed "fight and talk" policy, the Communist command's push came as North Vietnamese and American negotiators prepared for their fifth meeting today in the Paris cease-fire talks.

American casualties were reported as 54 killed and 192 wounded in the series of battles. South Vietnamese losses were termed light.

Enemy Troops Move
Sharp fighting continued on three sides of Saigon today. The Viet Cong was believed moving 500 to 1,000 troops toward the capital.

The heaviest fighting over the weekend came in the northern sector, where North Vietnamese troops renewed their pressure on the U. S. Marine headquarters at Dong Ha, and in the central highlands, where a massive campaign may be shaping up.

U.S. spokesmen said superior allied firepower led to enemy defeats in most of the clashes, but American troops appeared to have been set back in at least two places.

About 800 North Vietnamese overran a section of the perimeter and four bunkers at a U.S. 4th Infantry Division patrol and artillery base 11 miles west of Dak To in the central highlands.

In more than seven hours of fighting, 14 U.S. infantrymen were killed and 56 wounded. U.S. fighter-bombers joined the battle and the enemy retreated in thick fog.

Cong Attack
About 400 Viet Cong troops attacking with grenades, mortars and small arms killed five infantrymen of a U.S. 25th Division unit in night defensive positions on the northwestern outskirts of Saigon, six miles from the center of the city. The enemy withdrew early today.

Other Sections Hit As Hocking River Goes Over Banks

By The Associated Press
Evacuations began for the second time in less than a week in southern Ohio Monday as rainstorms returned to the state to push falling floodwaters back up and out of their banks.

At Laurelville in Hocking County, the hardest hit community in last week's floods, the Salt and Laurel Creeks rose eight inches on Sunday and were still rising rapidly today.

Some 500 residents remained evacuated and a five-day supply of federal surplus food was to arrive for them today. Maj. Gen. Sylvester T. Del Corso, Ohio adjutant general, said National Guardsmen who were to have left today might be kept on a few days longer.

Storms Return
Storms which returned to Ohio Sunday after a sunny one-day break in the weather brought torrential rains and damaging winds to the central part of the state. A tornado hit the east end of Springfield.

Sandbagging operations were under way at Buckeye Lake south of Newark where flooding occurred because locks on the lake dam could not be opened to let water through.

Some of the 1,400 Ohio University students forced out of their Athens dormitories last week moved back in Sunday night—only to be moved out again. The Hocking River remained two feet above flood stage and was rising, threatening to cut off the town again as it did last week.

Ohio To Crest
The Ohio River reached its 52-foot flood stage at Cincinnati at 6:30 a.m. Monday, but the weather bureau said it expected the river to crest at 55 to 56 feet tonight without causing serious damage.

The Little and Great Miami rivers, Ohio River tributaries, were overflowing in Warren County again Monday, pushing some four feet of water into Morrow and forcing evacuation of some of the same people moved out of their homes in last week's flooding.

No injuries were reported in the Springfield tornado, which cut off electrical power to 1,800 houses, uprooted trees and flew the roof from one house after hitting the city's east end.

Nearly two inches of rain was dumped on Springfield Sunday, flooding basements and streets.

May 'Drips' Way Toward Record Rain

The weekend rainfall of more than two-thirds of an inch pushed May toward a record for wetness, with more precipitation on the way.

Ed Copeland, U.S. weather observer at Millport, reported a total of 5.22 inches of rain to date this month. The normal fall is about 3.5 inches.

The weekend precipitation did not greatly affect the level of the Ohio River in the immediate area, however.

The crest from the Monongahela flood passed the Stratton Dam Saturday afternoon about 4, with a 29.1-foot mark. Flood stage there is 36 feet.

The river level this morning at 8 was 20.8 feet, and falling.

And little hope is offered for an abrupt change for the better.

The forecast calls for the rain to end tonight, but more showers are due Tuesday.

The Ohio five-day forecast calls for below normal temperatures and up to an inch of rain through Saturday.

Highs are to average in the upper 60s and low 70s and lows in the upper 40s and low 50s. The warmest weather is due around midweek.

Area Woman, 54, Killed, Neighbor Hurt In Mishap

A 54-year-old Hookstown area woman was killed and her neighbor seriously injured when their car slammed into a large tree along a gravel road near their home Saturday afternoon.

Mrs. Mary Patrecelli of Hookstown RD 1 was pronounced dead on arrival at City Hospital following the crash at 3:30 p.m. on a Hanover Township road some five miles southeast of Hookstown.

Mrs. Ocie McMasters, 64, of Hookstown RD 1, driver of the auto, is "serious" today at the hospital with multiple lacerations of the nose and lip, a possible skull fracture, facial injuries and internal injuries.

Mrs. Patrecelli, owner of the 1961 sedan, suffered a fractured thigh, possible fractured back, head injury and lacerations.

Pennsylvania state police at Carnegie said the driver was headed north when the car apparently went off the roadway and crashed into the large maple tree near the edge of the road.

There were no witnesses, and seemingly no skid marks, state police said. Neither of the women was thrown out by the impact, but Mrs. McMasters was hurled against the steering wheel and Mrs. Patrecelli struck the windshield.

The two women resided within a half-mile of the accident scene. They were apparently headed toward their home.

Services for Mrs. Patrecelli will be held Tuesday at 1:30 p.m. in the Batchelor Funeral Home at Monaca, where friends may call today and tonight and Tuesday morning after 10.

Burial will be in Union Cemetery, Monaca.

Mrs. Patrecelli was born May 3, 1914, a daughter of the late John Duriska and Catherine Duriska. She formerly resided in Conway, moving to the Hookstown area about 12 years ago.

Mrs. Patrecelli was a member of the Lutheran Church at Steubenville, and a former employee of the Pittsburgh Screw and Bolt Co. at Monaca.

She is survived by a sister, Mrs. Carl (Julia) Young.

Chester Woman Hurt In Hancock Accident

A Chester woman is in "fair" condition at City Hospital with injuries suffered in a one-car accident at 2:31 a.m. today on Middle Run Rd.

Miss Barbara Starkey, 25, of Fairview Rd., a passenger in a car operated by George Pinkerton, 27, of Wellsville, received contusions and abrasions of the face, neck and back.

Pinkerton told Hancock County deputies that he was driving down the road when an auto approached on his side of the road, forcing him into a ditch. The driver of the other car has not been identified.

Two other accidents were investigated by deputies over the weekend.

Taken to Weirton General Hospital and admitted for contusions of the face and arms

Use Head To Outfox Hog

Dear Ann Landers: I have a large home and have taken in six working girls to room and board with me. They are all fine women and I would thoroughly enjoy our evening meal if it weren't for my husband.

Henry is the first one at the table. The minute he sits down he starts to shove the bread in his mouth. If there's a relish tray on the table he eats all the olives immediately. The pickles he inhales.

I bring the vegetable dish in first and Henry helps himself. By the time I bring in the meat he's on his second helping of vegetables.

I've told him it's rude to act like he's starving to death. He insists the house is as much his as it is mine and I have no right to tell him how to eat.

Naturally I never would correct him in front of the women but I'm embarrassed by his behavior. What can I do about it? — MARRIED TO A HOG.

Dear Married: The solution is so simple I'm surprised you haven't thought of it.

Don't put food on the table until everyone is seated — not even bread, and certainly no olives or pickles. Buy a large platter and serve the meat and vegetables together. It's easy to outfox a hog if you use your head.

Who's An Iceberg?

Dear Ann: I'm getting pretty sick of your pat answers. They're beginning to sound as if you crank them out of a machine. I refer specifically to your replies to husbands who complain about iceberg wives.

My wife has been a stationary snowdrift from the day we married. For 14 years I've put up with her excuses and "duty" expressions of marital "bliss." I first started to kid her about finding satisfaction elsewhere if she didn't warm up. Later I stopped kidding and made the threat in earnest. Her answer was, "I don't care what you do so long as you don't bother me."

I'm 35. My wife is 33. This is too young to dry up and blow away. She's an excellent mother, a fine housekeeper, a gracious hostess and active in the League of Women Voters, but she's more than cold—she's frozen.

Be practical and give me an answer that does more than take up two inches of newspaper space. — STARVATION DIET.

Dear S.D.: Many are cold but few are frozen. Your wife is probably the product of a guilt-ridden, inhibited mother who believed all men were beasts because that's what HER mother told her.

You say your wife is an iceberg. This is an apt description in more ways than one. Four-fifths of an iceberg is below the surface. Your job is to get acquainted with the whole woman.

Your iceberg — I mean your wife — should talk to her doctor. She's not living up to her responsibilities to you. Furthermore, she's cheating herself. You should see a doctor, too. A French philosopher once said, "There are no cold women — only clumsy men."

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of The Review, enclosing a self-addressed, stamped envelope.

3rd St. Crash Hurts Cyclist

An 18-year-old Pennsylvanian complained of injuries of the left leg after a collision between his motorcycle and an auto Saturday night on E. 3rd St., 30 feet west of Walnut St., police reported.

Stephen W. Crowe of West Mifflin told officers he was hurt when his 1964 model cycle was struck by a 1956 two-door sedan operated by Robert E. Williams, 43, of South Bend, Ind.

Williams told police he backed into Apple Alley and then pulled across E. 3rd St. toward a service station. Crowe told officers he was riding in a group of eastbound motorcycles when Williams' car "cut through our group." He said he applied his brakes and skidded into the rear of the car.

Officers investigated three more weekend traffic mishaps.

A 1967 sedan driven by Arthur Pickett Jr. of Wheeling skidded and hit a guardrail on the Freeway Sunday at 9:38 p.m. as he swerved to avoid hitting an animal that ran into his path, police reported. The crash loosened a post in the guardrail fence and caused light damage to the right rear fender of Pickett's car.

A mishap on Norton St. near St. Clair Ave. Saturday at 2 p.m. involved a 1961 four-door sedan driven by James Patrick Conrad, 51, of Philadelphia, and a 1959 two-door sedan operated by Shirley June Burchett, 34, of Main Blvd. The woman said her auto was halted when it was hit by Conrad's backing car.

A similar mishap Sunday on the parking lot at the Inn Town Motel on E. 3rd St. involved a 1966 two-door sedan of Edith Marie Taylor, 36, of Chester Rd. 1 and a 1967 four-door sedan driven by James Patrick of Charles Fincham, 61, of Jacksonville, Fla. The woman said her auto was halted when it was hit by Fincham's backing car, damaging the left rear fender.

Two stolen cars were recovered by police over the weekend and a third taken Sunday night or early today still is missing.

A 1956 four-door sedan which Danny Wyke of Chester Rd. 1 reported stolen from Bradshaw Ave. between 12:55 and 1:40 a.m. Sunday was recovered by the Midland police department at 2:09 a.m. yesterday on Route 68 between Midland and Stop 9, west of the borough line.

Burglars Get $2 And Damage Safe

Burglars got $2 from a desk drawer and damaged a safe some time Friday night at the New York Life Insurance Co.'s Fremar Building at St. Clair Ave. Ext. and McCoy Ave.

Ben Feldman, manager, reported the break-in to the sheriff's office and Deputies Kent Garvey and Howard Gray investigated.

They said entry was gained by breaking out the bottom panel of a glass door to a second-floor deck. The intruders went through desks and cabinets and damaged the top three inches of the safe in an unsuccessful attempt to "peel" it, deputies said.

Only 'This War' Is Real

By GEORGE MCARTHUR
Associated Press Writer

CAI LAY, Vietnam (AP) — The day peace talks started in Paris, Capt. Mike Peck led 100 Americans on a daylong trek through the mucky paddies and steaming nipa palms of the Mekong Delta.

It was a frustrating search along the sluggish Bao Ba River for an enemy hideout that was never found. The sun was blistering and the company ran out of fresh water, drinking stinking canal water made worse tasting by bitter purification tablets.

There was no time to eat. The men were beat when they came back to their bunkered camp at sundown. They gulped down a hot meal and dropped off to sleep on dirty blankets, still grimy from the delta's mud.

"It was just another day, a typical dry-hole," the husky, 27-year-old company commander recalled. "Nobody even mentioned the peace talks. I don't think my 'hoodlums' gave it a thought."

Peck's "hoodlums"—he sometimes also calls them "my merry mob"—are almost all draft-ees, many of them teen-agers. A sergeant of 24 considers himself a father-figure.

For them, the diplomatic convolutions of Paris are remote and unreal—as most of the world becomes unreal to an infantryman whose life depends on his rifle and immediate buddies.

Since the Americans and North Vietnamese began talking in Paris, the company has been on the march daily, seeking guerrillas who slip along canals and through villages they have known since childhood. At night the Americans put out ambushes and roaming, six-man "killer patrols."

With constant movement a part of his life, an infantryman in Vietnam has few benchmarks to judge time. Ask him what he has done since the peace talks started May 13 and he will reply, "How long ago was that?"

"Everything sort of blends in out here," says Peck, who is from Milford, Ohio, speaks French and English, served an exchange tour with the French army's paratroopers and is on his second tour in Vietnam.

"You know," said Pte. Dwight Shuey, a 20-year-old from Fort Lauderdale, Fla., "we're not as bad as we sound. We do try to follow things. We talk about the peace talks sometimes but the war still goes on. It's the war we think about mostly."

"I do believe in the cause of this war," Shuey said. "I think we should be here. A lot of times I don't agree with how it is being fought but I think we should be here..."

His platoon sergeant, William Gulden of Pennington, N.J., a husky 24-year-old who plans to go home to study psychology, agreed with reservations.

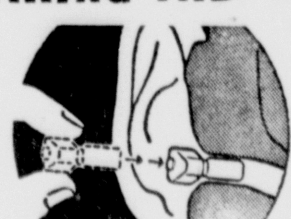

"Most of the guys couldn't care less what happens in Paris," he shrugged. "They know it won't affect anybody here for a long, long time."

Education Is A Privilege

At long last it appears that Dr. Grayson Kirk and the administration at Columbia have finally seen the light. It has been long overdue. Student rioting cannot be condoned, especially at private institutions. These colleges and universities can and should be more selective in admitting students, and by the same token, should feel free in expelling those unwilling to adhere to established disciplines and regulations.

Higher education is a privilege, not a right, and it is about time that college administrators began to run their institutions rather than letting the students and some faculty determine policy and procedures.

Much of the excellence in higher education has emanated from the private universities. If standards are to be kept on a high plane, academic and administrative discipline must be maintained.

It is true that non-public colleges have financial problems but this is no excuse for softness toward the rebellious student.

As long as the private school has to rely on the fund-raising abilities of trustees and friends, administrators are under pressure to maintain the quality of and opportunity for educating those wanting to learn.

It is calamitous that a vociferous and unruly minority of the students is permitted to disrupt educational processes. Those wanting an education should be encouraged and protected against the long-haired and bearded riffraff.

The New Beaver GOP

Beaver County Republicans have come up with a new leadership echelon in an attempt to stir greater vigor and vitality in the party's efforts on the 1968 campaign battlefields.

The narrow margin by which George Pettibon, minority County Commissioner, won over aging Russell Wright for the chairman post may pose some trouble for the GOP which has not scored many notable successes in recent years. A victory of 144-112 is decisive in basketball but not confidence — inspiring in a political committee.

Nevertheless, it does put a new look at the upper levels of the county organization, one which was clearly needed and in fact pressured by the state Republican leaders.

Intra-party friction is another ingredient of the democratic process, and it is the true party worker who can accept the measure of change, resolve the differences and buckle down to the task of whipping the other side with changed strategy and new direction.

Imperialist U.S.?

Very soon now the United States will officially return the Bonin Islands and the Volcano Islands, including Iwo Jima and Marcus Island, to Japan.

The Upper house of the Japanese parliament approved the agreement Wednesday and it had been approved previously by the lower house. The U. S. embassy will be notified of the action officially Monday and 30 days later the agreement will become effective.

All of the islands were seized during World War II.

The United States, in returning the islands to Japan, continues its long-standing policy of returning territory seized during wars.

The Communists love to call the United States an imperialist nation. Would an imperialist state return any property once conquered?

How often have the Russians returned any conquered land?

Letter From Max

By Martin Miller

Whenever Richard Nixon's two defeats for office are mentioned against him his supporters can always cite the case of Abraham Lincoln who suffered all sorts of defeats before he became president.

Nixon lost the 1960 presidential election to John Kennedy and the 1962 California election to Pat Brown but look at Lincoln's defeats.

He lost the nomination for Congress in 1843 but was elected to the U.S. House in 1847 and to the Illinois Legislature in 1854 but then ran into a streak of bad luck in politics.

He was mentioned as a vice presidential candidate at the first Republican convention in 1856 but was not picked. Then came the debates in 1858 with Stephen A. Douglas who beat him out for the U.S. Senate. At the time it was considered Douglas had bested him in the debates.

In the 1860 presidential election he won with only 40 per cent of the votes, running against Douglas, a northern Democrat; John C. Breckinridge of the southern pro-slavery Democratic Party, and John Bell, Constitutional Union Party. However, Lincoln won the election with 180 electoral votes to 123.

And before all that he had experienced all sorts of failures, having been a rail splitter, a hand on a river flatboat, a militiaman, storekeeper and surveyor before he became a lawyer in 1837.

So much for Nixon's two defeats.

With all the strikes of union, students, teachers and taxpayers going on these days don't be surprised if you see major league ball players refusing to come out of the dugout for the 10th inning for a second game of a doubleheader until they get a promise of Sundays and holidays off.

In widowhood, Mrs. John F. Kennedy and Mrs. Martin Luther King have enhanced their reputations as grand ladies, if that is possible.

While all of us Republicans and Democrats are cheering on the rebels in Poland, Czechoslovakia, Hungary, Romania and other countries behind the Iron Curtain, let us not forget that if those rebels were in this country they would be practically outlawed as subversive Communist. Over there the Kremlin considers them as subversive capitalist tools.

It sometimes seems that in this country the left uses communism as a club to scare the conservatives and the conservatives use communism as a club to scare the radicals. A pox on such tactics.

The words "macabre" and "Micawber" are pronounced almost the same but have opposite meanings. Macabre means gloomy and Micawber, as taken from Dicken's character of the same name, means optimistic.

It is strange that North Vietnam would consider Paris as a neutral site for the peace talks because France is a recent war enemy of North Vietnam. But times have changed since then.

Now that the Saturday Evening Post is planning to cancel 2 million of its subscriptions in a retrenchment program to aim at "class" subscribers, all those who lose their subscriptions can console themselves with the wonderful sales pitch by the Post that led them to subscribe in the first place.

Faithfull yours,

Reappraisal

"Reappraisal" is a word which has gained great favor in current discourse. Presidential candidates have been reappraising their decisions whether to run ever since January. Congress and the President are reappraising their fiscal policies. And businesses are reappraising their plans according to government policies and political prospects.

Along with that trend, Arizona and California have measurably reappraised their long-disputed claims to the water of the Colorado River. The result is a plan known as the Central Arizona Project. Various versions of that project have been before Congress from time to time since the Truman administration.

The Colorado is a hefty river but the needs of the states through which it and its tributaries flow are prodigious. Back in the 1920s an allocation of the water was made between what is called the upper basin and the lower basin. The lower basin states are Arizona, California, Nevada and New Mexico.

UNDER THAT INTERSTATE compact Arizona was to have the use of 2.8 million acre feet of the water, California 4.4 million acre feet and Nevada 300,000. But when the Hoover Dam was built, the then secretary of the interior made contracts with water users in California for 5,362,000 acre-feet and that state built channels to carry the water from Lake Mead.

Arizona's problem was made very difficult because the river was 200 to 250 miles distant from the three counties which needed the water. Those were Maricopa (Phoenix), Pima (Tucson) and Pinal. The problem was to pump the water from the river, lift it 900 feet over a mountain hump and to channel it to the parched counties. That meant a lot of electric power. And so there was introduced in Congress a bill for a Central Arizona project to provide a great dam at Bridge Canyon (now called Hualapai) to generate the needed power.

The cost of the whole project including the channels, and so forth, was estimated at $2.2 billion. That plan was approved by the Senate in 1950 and 1951. But the House failed to act because there was strong opposition from California and states in the East which objected to the great cost of supplying the needs of so small a state.

Since California insisted upon the more than 5 million acre-feet which had been assigned to it through earlier contracts, Arizona brought suit in the Supreme Court in 1952 to validate its claim for the 2.8 million acre-feet. After 11 years the court decided in Arizona's favor.

But there still remained the problem of getting the means for transporting the water. For a while Arizona was busy designing a plan to carry the burden itself. It's plan was to build two lower dams above the Hoover Dam on the river and with the power generated carry the water to the needy counties. It was to be financed with the state's revenue bonds.

But Sen. Carl Hayden and the Arizona House members decided to attempt to have Congress authorize a plan at federal expenses. After many compromises the present plan was devised. California was quieted by provisions that it should have prior claim to 4.4 million acre-feet and also that there would be facilities to augment the flow of the river by desalinization.

The dams would be eliminated and a big steam plant would be built and operated by a group of private and public agencies with some subsidy from the federal government. Fuel for this would be coal, which is already available in Arizona. And in order to get the support of Colorado, the plan includes five irrigation projects in that state.

IN THIS REAPPRAISAL two hard facts are recognized. One is that the idea so fanatically promoted by President Roosevelt and Secretary Ickes in the 1930s that electric power generated by hydroelectric dams is cheaper than generation by coal and steam is a myth. And the certain advent of nuclear energy may well make the great power dams in not so many years monuments to political folly. Dams are legitimate for water conservation and flood control. But as a source of power they are, with some exceptions, headed for oblivion.

Another fact recognized in this plan is that as cities and industries grow in such arid areas as central Arizona, they must have priority over irrigation in the use of water.

Back there in the controversies of the early 1950s it was shown that if the agricultural acreage were cut by 10 per cent there would be water for a city twice the size of Phoenix. That growth has already been exceeded and the city has actually taken over much of the crop-raising land. And the water problem is much less serious than it was 20 years ago.

That is a lesson which was recognized in the laws of Hamurabi 4,000 years ago. The priorities were people first, then animals and, finally, the land.

The Inside Story

By Art Buchwald

WASHINGTON — Gov. Nelson Rockefeller of New York met the other morning with Gov. Ronald Reagan in a New Orleans hotel suite and started political tongues wagging all over the United States. According to reports, Reagan managers were furious that their man had been booked in the same hotel as Rockefeller and were dead set against the meeting, as it would look like a deal had been made between Gov. Reagan and Gov. Rockefeller.

Art Buchwald

But Rockefeller, who is desperate to stop Richard Nixon, figures the only way he can do it is by hooking up with Reagan and was determined to see the California governor in New Orleans at any cost.

THE SCENE IS the sixth floor of the Roosevelt Hotel in New Orleans. Gov. Rockefeller tiptoes down the hall and stops in front of Gov. Reagan's suite.

He knocks. No answer. He knocks again. Still no answer.

"Ronnie, it's Nelson. Ronnie, I know you're in there. I just want to speak to you for a minute. Aw, come on, Ronnie, no one will know we met."

The door opens slightly. Reagan peeks out. "Go away. I don't want to be your vice president."

"I didn't come to talk to you about that, Ronnie. I just wanted to chat with you about our mutual Medicaid problems. Please let me in."

Reagan finally opens the door. Twenty reporters try to follow Rockefeller into the suite.

Reagan, after shoving them all out, says, "What were those reporters doing out there?"

"I HAVE NO IDEA," Rockefeller says. "I thought they were with your party."

"There's nobody from the Albany Times Union in my party."

"Well, it certainly was a surprise to me when I saw them all standing there, Ronnie. I was hoping to just sneak up here and say hello. You can imagine my surprise when I heard you were in the same hotel as I was."

"I'll bet," Reagan says. "Look, Rocky, I'm an avowed non-avowed presidential candidate and it doesn't look good for me to be meeting with you. Some people might get suspicious and think we were trying to make a deal."

"How could they possibly think that?" Rockefeller says. "After all, what could I possibly offer you that you don't have already?" Silence.

"I'm asking you a direct question, Ronnie."

"At this stage, I'm not prepared to answer," Reagan says. "Gee whiz, Rocky, I was doing fine until you came up here. I'm the only one who is calling for locking all the students up. I don't believe we should promise the minorities anything we can't deliver on, and if the North Vietnamese don't want to talk peace, then we should invade immediately and kick the devil out of them."

"That's exactly what I was thinking, Ronnie. Ideologically there's no gulf between us."

"YOU'RE JUST SAYING that because I've got the South wrapped up."

"Ronnie, how can you say such a thing? Happy and I are your biggest fans. We have seen 'King's Row' six times on television. We still run 'Knutie Rockne' after dinner every night. But I guess 'Brother Rat' is our favorite. I'm not here to make a deal with you."

"Then why did you come?"

"You won't believe this Ronnie, but Happy asked me to come up here and get your autograph."

VICTOR RIESEL

Wage-Price Freeze Hinted

WASHINGTON — Those poor people over at Resurrection City may soon see a white suburb hugging their campsite and built by experts — namely, the building and construction contractors of America, who see themselves being driven into bankruptcy by "fantastic" union demands.

The construction industry, too, now wants to petition the White House and Congress. They are now hit by 99 major walkouts called by craft union strike committees, demanding raises anywhere from $40 to $160 a week.

This means that unions such as the Teamsters, the operating engineers, carpenters, masons and lesser-known toilers are demanding anywhere from 20 to 70 per cent wage hikes in the first year of the new contracts — if ever they're signed.

So the construction company executives, hardy men with bone-crushing handshakes, now have become the nation's greatest market for tranquilizers — and the White House is not far behind.

When all this, and much more, was put before President Johnson at the grimmest moment of his tax hike fight, he decided he wanted an arsenal of weapons with which to take full-silencing shots at inflation.

THUS ON MONDAY, May 20, he skulked-sessioned with his White House troubleshooters and sent word to that new man, Arthur Okun, over at the Council of Economic Advisers to re-think and come up with a plan for wage and price controls.

The message to Okun and key labor and business leaders was that unless the President got a tax hike — which now doesn't seem likely — he would have to cool the nation's opulence by freezing wages and prices. Chief economic egg-head Okun positively is opposed to any such pay or price pause laws, edicts, or boards, and so does not have a plan.

But the President suddenly got the feeling that he won't get his tax surcharge law through the Congress, which wants him to slash $5 billion in spending from the federal operating budget of $30 billion (the rest is earmarked for Defense and other fixed charges).

Lyndon Johnson knows he can't get enough liberal and labor votes in Congress to push through a $6 billion cut. He can still hear the voice of AFL-CIO President George Meany, telling him at a closed session in the Cabinet Room on May 14:

"Mr. President, I don't like to talk to you this way, but labor won't stand for such a slash in spending. We'll go for a $4 billion cut but not six cents more. We are not about to budge."

THEN CAME THE NEWS of a red hot summer on the labor-management front. Building and construction throughout Michigan virtually had ceased on May 2.

Some 80,000 men had walked out — and driven off in their new cars. In Detroit the electrical workers' brotherhood insisted on a 59.2 per cent increase in the first year of the new contract — a $152-a-week increase.

The carpenters demanded a $3.96-an-hour increase over a two-year contract — a 66 per cent increase.

In this business everything is a pattern. Teamsters set the pattern for the rubber workers, rubber for copper, copper for telephone, communications for aluminum (now being negotiated), aluminum for aerospace, and finally the big showdown will be steel. In many cases the government is the biggest single customer — and the price will go up. So will the cost of governing in war and peace.

Thieves Flee With Cash Of 2 Physicians

Intruders fled with an undetermined amount of cash after looting the W. 5th St. offices of two physicians over the weekend, police reported.

The money was taken from a rifled desk drawer in the offices of Drs. William and Fred Banfield at 132 W. 5th St. A filing cabinet also was forced open.

Dr. William Banfield told officers the entry was made between noon Saturday and 8 a.m. Sunday. He said the intruders broke out a 3-x-7-foot door leading into the basement from the south side of the building, then smashed through another door to gain entry to the main office area.

It was the second such incident in 48 hours. Intruders broke into the offices of Drs. John W. Hayes and C. M. Mayberry Friday night or Saturday. The loot totaled $38.50, including 10 silver dollars, police determined over the weekend.

Six more incidents of theft and vandalism were reported to police over the weekend.

Bill Shields of 1071 Claiborne St. told police his son's "go-cart" with a three-horsepower motor was stolen about 1 p.m. Sunday. Robert Kays of 427 Prospect St. reported Sunday morning two hubcaps were stolen from his car while it was parked in front of his home the preceding night. Mrs. Jessie Gallie of 1252 Erie St. told officers Saturday afternoon a 6-volt battery was stolen from her auto while it was parked at the rear of her home.

Sen. Robert F. Kennedy has won the bulk of Iowa's Democratic National Convention delegates and Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey holds the lion's share of Vermont's.

And Humphrey has 63% of Pennsylvania's 130 convention votes, an Associated Press survey showed today, to 19 for Sen. Eugene J. McCarthy and 2 1/4 for Kennedy.

A meeting of the Pennsylvania delegates has been scheduled today at which it is possible state organization leaders, who have tried to maintain official neutrality, may throw support to Humphrey.

Statewide Initiation Held

Order Marks 115th Year During Meeting At Lisbon

LISBON — The 115th anniversary of the Junior Order of United American Mechanics was observed here Saturday during a statewide initiation.

The program got under way at 3 p.m. at David Anderson High School.

The order, founded in 1853, first confined its membership to working mechanics and apprentices, but expanded its activities years ago.

Among the organization's projects is a children's home at Lexington, N.C.

Saturday's meeting was opened by State Councilor Myron Wollet of Youngstown, who introduced guests, state and national officers.

The Lisbon degree team then took over. J. E. Hinchliffe served as councilor, Luther Parks as vice councilor, Thomas Smith as chaplain, Ray Meehan Jr. as past councilor, Robert Robb as conductor, William Guy as warden and O. R. Dille as inside sentinel. Eight candidates were initiated.

The women attending the session were entertained during the afternoon at the Legion Hall, with Mrs. Nannie Mehan, Mrs. Lola Stock and Mrs. Hinchliffe serving as hostesses. Graham Kearney addressed the women and took them on a tour of Lisbon's old stone house.

Eighty-seven were present at the dinner served by the Lisbon Band Parents at 6 o'clock in Lincoln School.

Lodge members, families and guests assembled at the high school for the evening session, where the orphan's degree was exemplified.

Otto Haines of Tiffin acted as councilor. Paul Campbell of Springfield was vice councilor. R. B. Garrett of Hamilton as junior past councilor, William Burdall of Hamilton as the pilgrim, L. M. Moon of Youngstown as conductor and Atty. George Schilling of Wilmington as sponsor. Charles Hill served as the representative candidate. Walter Newton and daughter of Leetonia also participated in the degree work.

Local Resident Receives Degree

William McSwegin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Merl McSwegin of 1514 Allison St., received his bachelor of arts degree during commencement exercises Sunday at Depauw University, Greencastle, Ind.

McSwegin majored in religion.

Approximately 500 were presented degrees by Dr. William F. Kerstetter, president of the university.

Dr. John D. Millett, head of the Ohio Board of Regents at Columbus, delivered the address.

Jurors Begin Lisbon Cases

LISBON — Juries were sworn in in both Common Pleas Court courtrooms this morning for trial of a burglary charge and determination of damages in an Ohio Highway Department land appropriation case.

The jury seated for the land case left by bus at 11 a.m. to view the premises—three parcels totaling 10.66 acres on the east side of the farm of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Thomas along Route 164 just south of Midway Grange.

They refused the state's offer for the land needed for construction of Route 11 — the Lake Erie - to - Ohio River Freeway. This case is the first of several appropriation hearings scheduled for Common Pleas Court. Owners have asked for jury trials to fix the value of land being taken.

Sworn in this morning by Judge Raymond S. Buzzard were Alva Webber, Dwight Hickman, Mary C. Densmore and Margaret Clutter, East Liverpool; Charles Ewing, Wells; Kermit Riffe, Lisbon RD 1; Betty Jurajovic and Jane Hacker, East Palestine; Dorothy Dickey, New Waterford and Edwin H. Evans, John L. Krepps and William Cameron, Salem. Elaine Bergman, Salem RD 2, is the alternate.

On trial in the other courtroom with Judge Joel H. Sharp presiding is Charles L. Fulton of Mt. Vernon, one of three youths charged with a burglary March 8 at Ivan's Exchange at Liberty St., Salem.

—The only other primary Tuesday is in Kentucky where there is no presidential preference contests. Twelve Democrats and four Republicans are competing for respective party nominations for the seat being vacated by retiring Sen. Thurston B. Morton, R-Ky.

—National Democratic Chairman John M. Bailey spiked rumors that the party's national convention may be moved from Chicago and said "at this time we expect that one of the major groups that originally planned demonstrations will go through with them."

—The Vietnam war and race relations were listed the major problems facing the country in a Gallup Poll survey of 1,534 adults. The survey showed 30 per cent believing a Republican president could best handle the major problem, 28 per cent believing a Democrat could and 42 per cent saying there was no difference or expressing no opinion.

—Supporters of Kennedy and McCarthy joined forces at the Denver, Colo., Democratic convention to dump a slate of Humphrey delegate candidates. Three delegates pledged to Kennedy and three pledged to McCarthy were selected.

—The Iowa and Vermont delegate selection came just before the third crucial primary confrontation between Kennedy and McCarthy, this one in Oregon Tuesday.

McCarthy Confident
Kennedy courted what his camp believed may be a large undecided vote in Oregon and McCarthy said "every sign" now points to a good showing for him.

Republican candidate Richard M. Nixon, predicting he will get 55 per cent of the GOP vote in Oregon, said supporters of California Gov. Ronald Reagan and New York Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller are working in tandem to try to block his drive for the presidential nomination.

Reagan, a California favorite son who says he is not a presidential candidate, is on the Oregon ballot. Rockefeller, an announced candidate, is not.

Nixon was considered sure to win Oregon's 18 GOP convention votes in the primary and the Democratic winner will get 35 convention votes.

Labor Gives Aid
Leaders of organized labor, in an effort to help Humphrey, have waged a telephone campaign for votes for President Johnson, who announced he was not a candidate after his name already was on the ballot.

Girl Rescued From Creek

A city resident rescued a young girl swept away by strong currents while wading in Beaver Creek near the Fredericktown bridge Saturday, placed her safely on the shore, then continued on his raft excursion.

Larry Roberts, 20, of Box 66 Vale St. Glenmoor Rd 1, and his uncle, Robert Crawford, 27, of Substation Rd., said they were in a four-man raft floating from Flanders to the Ohio River when they saw one of two girls — believed to be about 14-years-old — slip in the water and be carried downstream.

Roberts said he jumped into the water and pulled the girl to shore. He determined that she was safe, though "a little scared," and returned to his raft without inquiring about her identity.

He said a couple had arrived at the scene and he felt they could provide any further assistance that might be needed.

GOP In Beaver Elects Pettibon New Chairman

BEAVER — George Pettibon, new Beaver County Republican chairman, extended the olive branch to members of the GOP party following his victory over Russell O. Wright in Saturday's election, which saw Will Leavell of Midland named county committee treasurer — the first Negro to be chosen for a committee post. Pettibon, minority Beaver County commissioner, pledged unity and progress during the meeting at Beaver Area High School.

He received 144 votes to 112 for Wright, whose six-year reign as chairman ended. Pettibon's slate took all offices on the committee.

A third chairman candidate—Woody Aaron of Center Township—received eight votes.

Mrs. Mollie Levenson of Beaver Falls was named vice chairman over Mrs. Eleanor Hawn of Hopewell, 150-113, and Mrs. Lillian Carnegie of Rochester was chosen secretary over Mrs. Hazen Wilson of Aliquippa, 132-126.

Leavell ousted Wilbur Vogel of Hopewell, 148-113. Atty. Harvey Robinson was elected solicitor without opposition.

Pettibon prior to the voting declared he had not been involved in any of the factional differences which marked Wright's chairmanship of the last six years.

After his election, Pettibon said, "I want it understood there is no enmity on my part for those who voted against me. My doors will be open to everyone and I will listen to questions from everyone."

"I am for a progressive Republican party and want to break down the fences and barriers which have existed among groups within the party."

The only hint of disagreement at the meeting came when the nominating speech for Wright exceeded the five-minute time allotted, and some committee members called, "Time! time!"

Delaware was the first of the original 13 states to ratify the Constitution.

Palestine Woman Hurt As Two Cars Collide

An East Palestine woman was injured in a two-car collision at New Waterford Sunday—one of four traffic mishaps investigated by the Ohio Highway Patrol at Lisbon over the weekend.

Treated at Salem City Hospital were Sarah E. Cope, 45, a passenger in a 1963 sedan operated by her husband Elwood D. Cope, 45, of 2555 Neeld Rd., East Palestine.

Officers said the accident occurred at 8:50 p.m. when a 1967 compact, operated by Phillip Hertzog, 25, of Ellwood City, rounding a curve on Route 46, went out of control on the wet pavement, slid sideways and collided with the southbound Cope car.

The left rear of the compact and the left front of the Cope car were damaged moderately, officers reported.

Hertzog was cited by the patrol for driving while intoxicated.

A 1961 coach operated by a city woman was damaged in a highway accident about two miles west of Glenmoor Sunday.

The coach, operated by Mary L. Hoffman, 22, of 9th Ave., LaCroft, was damaged moderately on the front end at 5:45 p.m. when it turned left onto Route 267 from County Rd. 451, went off the northside of the road and struck a guardrail.

Two fence posts and 30 feet of wire on the property of Herman Hopple of RD 3 were damaged in a mishap two miles east of Calcutta Saturday.

Officers said the accident occurred at 11:20 a.m. when a 1964 station wagon, operated by Donna Jean Mays, 31, of Stagecoach Rd. RD 3, veered to the right to avoid an approaching car which was overtaking a third vehicle.

The westbound Mays car then went out of control and crashed into the fence, officers reported.

The on-coming car was operated by Andy Byrd, 32, of Pennsylvania Ave., Midland, the patrol said.

The 1962 coach received heavy damage to the top, right and left sides as the result of a one-car collision a half-mile east of Rogers Saturday at 11:40 p.m.

Officers said the coach, operated by Melvin M. Shaw of Rogers RD 1, was eastbound on Route 154 when it swerved off the right side of the roadway into an embankment, rolled over and came to rest on its top.

was Mitchell L. Ford, 17, of New Cumberland RD 1. Ford was operating a motor bike on Route 8, about three miles north of New Cumberland at 11:30 a.m. Saturday, when a car coming toward him made a left turn. Ford applied the brakes, but they locked, causing his bike to overturn.

Danny Swiger, 16, of New Cumberland, a passenger on the cycle, was treated and released. No arrests were made. The driver of the other vehicle was unidentified.

Another accident occurred at 6:08 p.m. Sunday on Route 2 near the Cow Farm when a car operated by John Fidler, 22, of New Cumberland attempted to pass a car operated by Cecil Criss, 39, of 231 Bethany Pike. Wheeling. When pulling in front of the Criss auto, the Fidler car caught the left front bumper with its right side.

No arrests were made and no injuries were reported.

Police Continue Search

SAN LUIS OBISPO, Calif. (AP) — The search for two escaped mental patients swung to San Francisco today after the release there unharmed of the last of four hostages and the capture of one patient.

Frank Svehla, 53, the last hostage, hailed a passing patrol car in San Francisco about 4 a.m.

He and three others were seized when the three patients fled Atascadero State Hospital

Sunday. Svehla is a psychiatric technician.

The three, all with criminal records, armed and considered extremely dangerous, stabbed two guards, Sgt. Dave Baro and Robin Moore, when they broke from the hospital 20 miles north of here.

They took the wounded guards, Svehla and Mrs. Dorothy Warren, 40, also a psychiatric technician, as hostages.

2-Step Plan For Glasses

DEAR HELOISE: I hope you can help with this problem. I live in a hard water area and my dishwasher seems to have accumulated a film all over the inside, especially on the trays. Some of my glasses and dishes look foggy when I remove them. I know of anything that I can do to prevent this?

HELOISE

MARY B.

Yes, hon, there is something you can do. BUT, before you begin, read this carefully because this is a TWO-STEP METHOD.

First, put your glasses and porcelain china in the dishwasher. DON'T put any silver, aluminum or brass, etc., in the dishwasher when this method is used. ONLY CHINA AND GLASSWARE.

Then, put one cup of bleach in a bowl in the bottom rack of your washer. Run it through the wash cycle ONLY. Do NOT dry.

Fill the bowl again with one cup of vinegar and let run through the entire cycle.

This will remove all film from dishes AND the tiny crevices of your dishwasher.

Just one more caution, Mary. DON'T try to speed up this method by combining the bleach and vinegar in one step. It is definitely a TWO-STEP operation.

Your dishwasher and glasses won't have an iota of fog, spots or film on 'em when you get through.

DEAR HELOISE: I've never been able to wear rubber gloves. Their "snakey" feeling on my hands really bothers me. Yet my hands have suffered a result.

Last week I thought I'd try them again, so I purchased another pair. When I got home I found I had made a mistake in size; I bought the LARGE size instead of medium or small for my small hands.

What a lucky mistake! LARGE rubber gloves work perfectly for me. They don't slither tight against my hands and feel much more pleasant. I can slip them on and off so easily they are really no trouble.

ETHEL DOUGLASS.

DEAR HELOISE: My husband says when he just walks past the ice box he gains five pounds!

And I'm eating my second breakfast trying to gain. How about that?

SKINNY GAL.

DEAR HELOISE: As an amateur photographer, I have used cheesecloth stretched over frames for drying prints and enlargements.

Over a period of time, however, I found that I was plagued with dust, lint and mysterious stains from a previously dried print that had left traces of chemical in the cheesecloth.

I tried nylon tulle (net) such as that used in making a bride's veil. It really works and can be cleaned or dusted off with a damp cloth.

WARRIE M.

DEAR HELOISE: If your silicone ironing board cover wears out first where the iron rests...

Before discarding the old cover, cut any good parts into strips about eight inches wide. Then fasten one of these over the new cover at the wide end of the board where you stand your iron. As one piece becomes worn, just discard it and put on another.

You'll be amazed at how much longer your new cover will last.

E. M. PERRY.

DEAR HELOISE: I purchased two small wicker baskets and spray-painted them to match the color scheme of my kitchen. Then I hung them on the wall in the kitchen one below the other about eight inches apart.

I use one for paper napkins, the other for letters, coupons and other data that I want to keep handy.

I find them indispensable and they look very attractive.

As they come in all sizes and shapes, be sure to get them to fit your particular need.

Talks

(Continued from Page 1) are deadlocked, but Western diplomats believe North Vietnam is edging toward a concession to the U.S. demand that it admit the presence of its troops in South Vietnam.

This view is based on a statement in Hanoi Friday by Premier Pham Van Dong. He said the Vietnamese people "have the right" to go fight "wherever the enemy exists."

The U.S. Command in Saigon estimates that North Vietnam has 85,000 of its troops in the South. Harriman has argued that such problems of peace-making as these troops will be impossible to solve unless they are dealt with realistically.

Both Harriman and Thuy have recognized the possibility that the talks may fail, but both appear satisfied to move slowly toward a showdown on the main issue now before them—the end of all U.S. attacks on North Vietnam.

American officials say the United States cannot possibly stop the remaining bombing and shelling of targets in the North unless the Hanoi government cuts the heavy infiltration of recent months or gives some other evidence of de-escalation.

U.S. officials expect much more hard fighting in the South. Their reasoning is that the high command in Hanoi wants to destroy a major U.S. unit, to capture and hold part of Saigon, or to seize some smaller city as a means of gaining strength at the conference table in Paris.

Election

Nixon climaxed his campaign Sunday night with a 90-minute telecast on a statewide hookup. He answered questions telephoned by listeners—and one of them asked about his past defeats, in the 1960 presidential race and in a gubernatorial bid in California two years later.

"Old politicians seldom die," Nixon said. "They never fade away. Yes, I have suffered defeats. I think I'm a stronger man and I would hope a better qualified man by having gone through the fire of defeats."

But Nixon said he doesn't intend to have it happen again. Television and published advertisements were the major weapons of the campaigns waged for Reagan—who is on the Oregon ballot—and Rockefeller—who is not. The forces of the New York governor were seeking write-in votes.

President Johnson stepped out of the presidential campaign nine days after the Oregon ballot was closed, so he is listed on it, and Humphrey is listed on the vice presidential line.

Leaders of organized labor have been waging a telephone campaign to promote votes for Johnson in an effort to help Humphrey.

Oregon's primary will deliver 35 nominating votes to the Democratic winner, 18 to the Republican. The primary binds the delegations on the first two ballots, until released, or until its candidate fails to get at least 35 per cent of the convention vote.

Detroit, A's Brawl; Krausse Pitch Breaks Kaline's Arm

Sports Whirled

Pirate broadcaster Jim Woods yesterday kept complaining that the Pittsburgh-Cincinnati game in the Queen City never should have been played, due to the weather conditions "It's drier in the Everglades", Woods said, but the game was a good one for the Pirates (barring pneumonia) even though it ended in a tie.

Having fallen behind 7-2, the Bucs staged a six-run rally, their biggest of the year, if memory serves correctly. Until last week, the floundering Bucs were having trouble scoring six runs in a week, much less a game, and to get six in an inning, especially when every one was needed, has to build the morale of the Pirate hitters.

It looks as though the Bucs have come out of their prolonged slump, and are starting to live up to expectations. Now if the early-season pitching magic can continue.

Speaking of Jim Woods, when he started in the broadcasting business in Iowa he replaced Ronald Reagan, who since has become famous in two different fields.

GABE PAUL, president of the Indians, gives a suit for every shutout job by an Indian pitcher. He's bought 11 so far this year.

TOM WOOD, football, basketball, golf and track star at United Local, will attend Geneva College next year on a football scholarship. Wood led the Golden Eagles in total offense last fall with 1,254 yards gained, scored 130 points in the last two seasons, punted for a 43-yard average and was named all-county this past season.

DON SWICKARD and Dave Miller of Toronto to both will play for Ohio in the Ohio-West Virginia all-star football game at Wheeling June 1.

TOM COPE, star of Warren Harding's basketball team this past season, will attend Youngstown U. next fall. Cope, 6-3, averaged 18 points and 17 rebounds a game and was the top vote getter on the all-Big 8 team.

EAST LIVERPOOL'S Joe Massey has been named co-captain of next year's Thiel College basketball team, along with Craig Cunningham of Chesterland, Ohio. The Thiel cagers will have quite an East Liverpool cast next season, with coach Bud Manes and freshman-to-be Mitchell Jones also local products.

HURDLER Bob Mehl of Poland received his fourth varsity letter in track at Capitol U. this spring.

LOTS OF people have objected to the proposal to name the new stadium in Pittsburgh "The David L. Lawrence Stadium," but one who is doing something about it is F. J. McArdle of Pittsburgh, who is circulating petitions to have the stadium named "The Pittsburgh Memorial Stadium." The petitions have reached East Liverpool.

McVay, Murray Toss Colt League 1-Hitters

Three Colt League games were played Saturday, featuring two one-hitters.

Randy McVay and Steve Murray pitched the gems, both being deprived of no-hitters by misplays by the right-fielder.

Steve Staley got a double off Murray in the seventh and last inning as Blair-Morse whipped Riverview 11-0 and Rick Shuck got a double off McVay as Central Service downed Riverview 6-0. The Lawyers beat Blair-Morse 5-3 in the other contest.

Vic Reed, with a triple and two singles, and Rick Welsh, with two doubles and a single, led Blair-Morse's 15-hit attack against Riverview. Kim Kemple scored three times and winning pitcher Murray and Mike March had doubles. John Lockhart was the losing pitcher.

Rick Echols and Kim Burton each had two hits to pace Central's win. Winning pitcher McVay and El Parson had doubles. McVay fanned 11. Larry Marshall took the loss.

Parsons Coal Outslugs Chester 11-9

Parsons Coal outlasted Chester Legion 11-9 in eight innings in a Little League game Saturday at East Junior.

Bill Sayres had two home runs for the losers and losing pitcher Bill Maltarich had a double, but Chester couldn't overcome Parsons' 14-hit attack.

Vince McGeehan led the winners with four hits, including a triple. Wayne Hughes had three hits, including a double, and Don Samples had three singles. Scott Stacey had a double and a single and John McCormack a double.

Chester had an eight-run second inning to lead 8-3, but Parsons came back to tie the score in the sixth and win the second extra inning. Samples was the winning pitcher and Tim (Turtle) Shaw got a save by pitching the eighth.

Tigers Lead Orioles By 1

By DICK COUCH Associated Press Sports Writer

The next time the Detroit Tigers visit the American League's newest city they're liable to show up in armor-plated flannels.

In splitting a pair of weekend decisions with the brash, young Athletics in Oakland, the Tigers:

—Had three starters, including Al Kaline, knocked out of commission.

—Had another regular banished following a Sunday free-for-all.

—And had their league lead cut to one game by Baltimore's streaking Orioles.

Pinch hitter Rene Lachemann added insult to injury in Sunday's brawl-marred series finale, stroking a run-scoring single in the 10th inning to give the A's a 7-6 victory.

Elsewhere, the Orioles outscored Washington 8-7 for their fifth straight victory. Minnesota nipped Boston 5-4. Cleveland beat California 5-2 and the New York Yankees took a doubleheader from the Chicago White Sox 5-1 and 7-6.

The Tigers and A's battled to a 2-2 rain-abbreviated tie in Friday night's series opener. The Tigers won 2-1 Saturday night, but lost Kaline for two to three weeks when the injury-plagued outfielder was struck by a Lew Krausse pitch and suffered a hairline fracture of his right forearm.

In the same game, Detroit second baseman Dick McAuliffe tossed his bat in disgust while running out a pop fly, tripped over the bat and severely bruised his thigh. He sat out Sunday's game, and slugging outfielder Willie Horton joined him on the sidelines in the fourth inning after injuring his leg while running out a bunt single.

Depleted by the injuries, the Tigers fell behind 6-0, then scored twice in the fifth and struck for four runs in the sixth to knot it at 6-6.

After Dick Tracewski drove in the tying run with a sacrifice fly, Oakland reliever Jack Aker hit Jim Northrup on the back of the batting helmet with a pitch.

Northrup charged the mound and flattened Aker with a flurry of punches as both benches emptied. Horton emerged from the Tigers' dugout in his stocking feet, ready to do battle. Krausse raced from the Oakland bench to the middle of the scuffle.

A's pitcher John "Blue Moon" Odom, although not in the game, also raced from the dugout and mixed it up with the Tigers' injured McAuliffe.

When order was restored, Northrup, Krausse and Odom were ejected from the game and Aker was helped to the A's dressing room, his face bruised and scratched, most of his uniform torn off.

Umpire Ed Runge said that Odom was thrown out because "he kicked McAuliffe in the ribs."

Northrup was sent to a nearby hospital as a precautionary measure, then released to join the departing Tigers.

A woman fan was less fortunate. During the fight, one of the Detroit players threw a ball into the stands. It struck her above the right eye, opening a three-inch gash, and doctors said she may have suffered a concussion.

Four innings after the brawl was over, Jim Paliaroni poked a leadoff double and Lachemann, batting .154 with just one RBI in 15 previous games, sent everybody home with a run-scoring single to left.

The Orioles capitalized on the wildness of Washington pitchers Frank Bertina and Bob Humphreys to score four runs without a hit in the first two innings.

Dave Johnson singled in the fifth for the first Baltimore hit and Andy Etchebarren cracked a two-run homer, giving the Orioles a 6-2 lead. The Senators mounted a late inning comeback that included Frank Howard's 19th homer but fell one run short.

Ninth inning homers by Harmon Killebrew and Ted Uhlaender powered the Twins past Boston after Ken Harrelson's three-run blast helped the Red Sox to a 4-0 first inning lead.

Max Alvis drove in three runs with a homer and single and Larry Brown lashed a two-run triple as the Indians topped California behind Luis Tiant's four-hitter.

Mel Stottlemyre scattered four hits in the first game and Joe Pepitone hammered a pair of homers in the second as the Yankees completed a sweep of their four-game set with the White Sox.

Tom Tresh and Bobby Cox homered for the Yanks in the first game and they struck for six runs in the first inning of the nightcap, then weathered a three-run homer by Tom McCraw and a three-run Chicago rally in the ninth.

The Indians backed him up with 10 hits, including two by Tony Horton and three by Max Alvis. Max drove in three runs. He smashed a two-run homer in the sixth and singled in another run in the eighth.

Larry Brown tripled home the first two runs in the second inning off right-hander Marty Pittin, making his major league debut. Horton and Alvis were aboard when Brown slapped one to right center.

The Angels loaded the bases with two outs in the seventh on a single by Rick Reichardt and walks to Ed Kirkpatrick and Jimmy Hall. But Tiant, who walked three and fanned 12, struck out pinch hitter Tom Satriano.

The Tribe opens a three-game stand in Minneapolis tonight with Stan Williams (2-2) going against Dean Chance (4-4) in the first game.

"Doc helps, too," Tiant said, referring to Cleveland Indians' trainer Wally Bock.

It was 94 degrees in Anaheim, Calif., Sunday and Bock said he bathed Tiant's face between innings with a special concoction.

"It's ammonia and ice water," Bock said. "We soaked towels in it, then used them on Looie's head and hands."

Tiant (6-4) allowed one single through 5 2-3 innings until Paul Schaaf rapped his second homer of the year. That made the score 4-1 and Chuck Hinton accounted for the other California run with a lead off homer in the eighth.

Tiant never let the heat bother him. He had a long-sleeved, woolen sweatshirt and wore a wind-breaker in the on-deck circle. The between inning treatment also helped.

"It makes me feel fresh... nice," Tiant said.

Drysdale Blanks Houston 5-0 For 4th Straight Shutout

NL Race Tight As Leaders Lose

By HAL BOCK

Associated Press Sports Writer

The strong pitching arms that have dominated major league baseball this spring are zooming in on poor, old Doc White again.

This time it's Don Drysdale of the Los Angeles Dodgers, who polished off Houston 5-0 for his fourth consecutive shutout Sunday.

That tied Drysdale with five-others for the modern National League record of four straight blank jobs. The major league record of five was set by one G. Harris White, who pitched for the Chicago White Sox in 1904 which, until now, was always known as baseball's deadball era.

Doc White's mark stood off a confrontation by Luis Tiant of Cleveland, who pitched four straight shutouts earlier this season and now Drysdale is perched on the doorstep.

In other National League action Sunday, Chicago dropped San Francisco 4-2, Philadelphia battered St. Louis 9-3, Atlanta nipped New York 2-1 in a game called after six innings by rain and Pittsburgh tied Cincinnati 8-8 in a game ended by rain after seven innings.

Drysdale, who won his previous three starts 1-0, 1-0, and 2-0, had a laugh for a change with the Dodgers scoring five runs for him.

The big right-hander allowed six hits and fought off a serious challenge to his shutout skein in the ninth when Denis Menke and Rusty Staub opened with singles. Drysdale got Lee Thomas on a double play bounce and walked Jim Wynn and hit Bob Aspromonte, loading the bases, before Dave Adlesh grounded out to end it.

Drysdale also had a couple of singles, driving in Los Angeles' first run in the third inning and keying a two-run wrapup rally in the ninth.

Ernie Banks smashed two home runs, giving him 450 for his career, as he led Chicago past San Francisco, Banks, 37, also had a single and the nine total bases helped him set a Cub record of 4,158 career total bases, snapping the club mark of 4,149 set by Cap Anson before the turn of the century.

Bill Hands pitched a four-hitter for the victory—his fifth in seven decisions this season. Mike McCormick took the loss.

Rich Allen drove in four runs and Tony Taylor chased home three, leading the Phillies over the Cardinals.

Allen had a three-run homer and Woody Fryman went the distance for his sixth victory. Taylor and Johnny Callison had three hits apiece.

It was the fifth loss in six games for the slumping Cardinals.

The Braves edged the Mets in a splashy affair at Atlanta. The game was delayed over an hour at the start and played in a steady rain until the seventh when the downpour forced the umpires to halt and eventually call it.

By then, though, the Braves had a 2-1 edge and it went in the books as a victory.

Rain washed out a tie breaking run in the eighth inning for Pittsburgh and left the Pirates with a deadlock against Cincinnati.

Roberto Clemente's two-run homer highlighted a six-run Pirate sixth that gave Pittsburgh an 8-7 edge but a double by Tommy Helms and Vada Pinson's single tied it for the Reds in the bottom half of the sixth.

Clemente singled Willie Stargell across in the eighth before the rain eliminated the run.

Called In Eighth

Pirates, Reds Tie 8-8 In Rain-Soaked Game

CINCINNATI (AP) — The rains won Sunday and the Pittsburgh Pirates and the Cincinnati Reds had to settle for an 8-8 tie.

In fact it rained throughout the seven official innings which were completed.

The Pirates, who defeated Cincinnati Friday and Saturday, had scored a run in the eighth before the umpires called a 54-minute stop.

The rain didn't stop — wiping out Pittsburgh's lead and sending the game into the tie situation.

Batting records through the seven innings held.

"The game should never have been started — that was obvious," Pirate Manager Larry Shepard said. "The players could do nothing; they had no footing."

Braves Edge New York 2-1 In Downpour

ATLANTA (AP) — Johnny Murphy, general manager of the New York Mets, said the playing conditions were "the worst I've ever seen."

Mets Manager Gil Hodges called it a "disgrace to baseball."

But umpire Shag Crawford, among those who had the final say, put it this way: "He (Murphy) is not in this uniform. I have to use my own judgment in this situation. We are told to make every effort."

The controversy, involving rain-soaked Atlanta Stadium erupted Sunday after the Atlanta Braves took a 2-1 rain-abridged victory over the Mets.

Murphy, who obviously was irritated over the decision to start the contest, said the game "never should have gone past the first batter."

"The Atlanta management had every right to turn the game over to the umpires," Murphy declared. "They (the umpires) should have called it. They used bad judgment... really bad judgment."

Crawford, defending the decision to start the game, said the "mound was the only question mark and we told the Mets pitcher (Tom Seaver) to let us know if he wanted it worked on. He said it was okay, but we put sand on it twice when he came out to pitch."

The rain — which eventually won the decision with New York batting in the seventh inning — had fallen spasmodically throughout the night and morning.

John Adams and his son, John Quincy Adams, made up the only father-son team to have served as president of the United States.

DON DRYSDALE

Hutton Says Drysdale Uses Vaseline Pitch

HOUSTON (AP) — Grady Hutton, manager of the Houston Astros, says he thinks Los Angeles pitcher Don Drysdale is loading up the ball.

"He's using something," Hutton said Sunday after Drysdale twirled his fourth consecutive shutout of the season, a 5-0 triumph over the Astros.

At the start of the second inning Sunday, plate umpire Al Barlick inspected Drysdale's hands and hat.

"He just walked out," said Drysdale, "and said, 'let me see your hat, your hand.' No, I didn't let it bother me. If you're innocent, you have nothing to worry about, right?"

"I don't know what it is, whether it is olive oil, Vaseline or what," said the Astros' skipper. "But whatever it is, I think Drysdale keeps it inside his glove."

The 31-year-old Drysdale, who tied a record of four shutouts in a row held by five modern era National League pitchers, has tossed shutouts for all five of his 1968 victories.

"He turns his back, goes inside his glove and puts it on his fingers," said Hutton, "but what's the difference? If he can get away with it, more power to him."

Mets, Red Sox Win In HIHS

The Salineville Mets and the Hammondville Red Sox won lopsided decisions in HIHS League action Saturday night.

The Mets whipped the Salineville Dodgers 14-3, with Terry Dugan the winning pitcher and Mike Earich the loser. The Red Sox downed the Irondale Indians 9-1 with Gene Furbie the winner and Bill Allen the loser.

Richard Pinkerton slammed a homer for the winners.

There will be a meeting of the league parents tomorrow at the Highlandtown Fire Hall at 7 p.m. At 8 p.m. tomorrow the managers and league officials will meet at Irondale.

Belmont Race Set Saturday

By TED MEIER
Associated Press Sports Writer

The 100th running of the Belmont Stakes, in which Forward Pass and Dancer's Image will meet for the third time, climaxes a big holiday weekend in thoroughbred racing this week.

In the record book, Forward Pass has a chance to become the first Triple Crown winner in 20 years, but many racing fans consider Dancer's Image even with the Calumet Farm color bearer after the Kentucky Derby and the Preakness.

Dancer's Image carried the silks of Peter Fuller across the finish line first in the Kentucky Derby on May 4, but later was disqualified.

Forward Pass, declared the official Derby winner, won the Preakness on May 18 by six lengths over Out Of The Way with Dancer's Image disqualified from third for bullying between horses in the stretch.

Call Me Prince, Out Of The Way and Stage Door Johnny are among the other possible starters in the 1½ mile Belmont, which likely will gross more than $150,000.

The appearance of Dr. Fager in the $100,000-added Metropolitan Handicap at Belmont on Decoration Day, Thursday, highlights the start of the big holiday weekend.

Dr. Fager, perhaps the fastest thoroughbred in training, has been assigned too weight of 134 pounds for the Met mile and is favored to make it three-for-three this year. In his previous 1968 starts he won the $50,000 Rosebush Handicap and the $100,000 Californian.

This year's $100,000 Jersey Derby at Garden State also is on Thursday's holiday card.

Graham Hill Wins

Monaco Grand Prix

MONTE CARLO (AP)—Graham Hill, driving a Lotus, won the Grand Prix of Monaco Formula One race Sunday, finishing the 160 miles in 2:32.3 for an average speed of 77.7 miles per hour.

Games Postponed

The Western Beaver at Midland and Monaca at South Side baseball games scheduled for Saturday were postponed due to wet grounds.

Indianapolis Qualifications Come Slowly

By DALE BURGESS

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind. (AP) — Qualifications for the 52nd 500 mile auto race Thursday went into an extra session today at the Indianapolis Motor Speedway for the first time since 1952.

Rain, all but one day of the last three weeks, left the time trials schedule in a shambles.

Nine cars qualified Saturday in high winds, headed by Mel Kenyon, Lebanon, Ind., at a modest 165.191 miles per hour. Eight spots remain open in the 33-car line-up.

The track was too wet for speed until well after the 6 p.m. EST scheduled close of time trials Sunday.

Rules permitted the Speedway to complete the line-up any way it saw fit, and it decided to let every healthy unqualified car — about 25 — make one more run. The 25 already qualified cars were ruled safe from "bumping" by any subsequent superior speeds.

Two provisional qualifications were made at dusk Sunday by veteran Bill Cheesbourg, Tucson, Ariz., a slow 157.274 in an Eagle-Ford, and rookie Bill Puterbaugh, Roxanna, Ill., 157.301 in a Gerhardt-Ford.

The consensus in the Speedway's Gasoline Alley was that it didn't make much difference who filled the last eight spots in the line-up.

The three Lotus turbines, driven by Joe Leonard, Graham Hill and Art Pollard, are considered the class of the field if they hold up for 500 miles.

Hill won the Grand Prix of Monaco Sunday in record time after taking the Spanish Grand Prix two weeks ago.

America also had a driver with a hot hand, Bobby Unser, Albuquerque, N.M., who will start beside Leonard and Hill in the front row Thursday, has won the last three U.S. Auto Club championship races. He will drive a turbocharged Offenhauser.

Jay Silvester Sets

World Discus Mark

MODESTO, Calif. (AP)—Jay Silvester set a world record with a discus throw of 218-4 and Gerry Lindgren broke the American record with a time of 13:33.8 in the three-mile run in the California Relays Saturday.

NL Meets Today To Chart Expansion

By JOE MOOSHIL
Associated Press Sports Writer

CHICAGO (AP) — Eenie, meenie, minie, mo which way will the National League go?

National League baseball owners meet today to decide which two of five cities, if any, they will take in for the 1969 season.

The owners voted on expanding to 12 teams earlier this year if they could unanimously agree on the two new members. The if wasn't considered much at the time but recently has gained momentum.

The cities in the hamper are San Diego, Dallas-Fort Worth, Buffalo, Milwaukee and Montreal.

Bob Carpenter, owner of the Philadelphia Phillies, is said to oppose expansion of any kind at the time. That alone could kill the move to match the rival American League.

The American League has expanded to 12 teams, with Kansas City and Seattle joining the circuit next season, and is currently considering a divisional split with a playoff to determine the championship.

LUNN LANGUISHES. Bob Lunn appears dejected after missing a putt on the 15th hole of the Memphis Open yesterday, but sparked by an eagle on 16 he went on to win the tourney. (UPI Telephoto)

23-Year-Old Lunn Wins Memphis Golf

By BOB GILBERT
Associated Press Sports Writer
MEMPHIS, Tenn. (AP) — An eagle Lunn neither plays golf nor talks the game at home. But for 40 tense minutes she knew something her husband, Bob, didn't know about the $100,000 Memphis Open Golf Tournament.

Angie saw Bob sink a 12-foot eagle putt on the 16th hole and realized he had moved into a two-stroke lead. He didn't know he was on the verge Sunday of winning the $20,000 first prize until he reached the 18th green. Lunn parred the next two holes, finished with a 12-under-par 65-68-68-67—268 and won the first tournament since he joined the tour last year.

"I watched on television in our motel room for a while, then went to the course and first saw him there at 15," Angie said. "I knew the eagle was important, but I wasn't thinking ahead that it would win for him."

"I felt a little weak on the 18th green when I knew I could win with a par," Lunn said. "It's probably fortunate I didn't know I was in front by two. Something might have happened."

Lunn, 23, of Sacramento, Calif., said he was planning on a birdie 4 when he made the eagle. He putted well throughout the tournament, making many two-to-five-foot putts for pars.

Monty Kaser, of Wichita, Kan., was second at 269 and won $12,000. Like Lunn, he is a former National Public Links champion.

Stepien Has Best Potter Golf Average

John Stepien came up with the best scoring average on the 1968 East Liverpool High School golf team, but Bill McHenry had the best winning percentage.

Stepien averaged 40.82, 2½ strokes better than anyone else. Bob Kinsey scored at 43.31, Bill McHenry 43.93, Rick Hughes 44.67, Jim Riggs 46.69, Jerry Williams 47.50 and Bob Simms 48.16.

McHenry posted an 18-7-4 mark, Kinsey 17-7-3, Stepien 19-9-2, Hughes 15-13, Riggs 6-6, Williams 4-5 and Simms 2-3-1.

The Potters had an 18-12 record for the year, 10-2 at the East Liverpool Country Club and 8-10 on foreign courses. The overall average for the Potters was 172.5 strokes a round for the low four golfers, with a 174.1 average at home and 171.4 away.

The opponents averaged 179.2 overall, 186.8 at East Liverpool and 173.8 on their home courses.

Coach Dave Thorne would like to thank the East Liverpool Country Club and pro Andy Petrick for their cooperation during the year. Thorne rates the toughest opponents faced this season as Youngstown Ursuline in Ohio, Weirton in West Virginia and Ellwood City in Pennsylvania.

The best score for the Potters was a 157 at Valley against Columbiana, but the Clippers fired a 148 that day, the best score recorded against East Liverpool all year. Stepien shot a 34 against Leetonia, the lowest individual score of the season.

Kinsey, McHenry and Simms return for next season, along with sophomore Rick Tommain and Andy Petrick Jr., who will be a sophomore next year.

Negro Wins High School State Tennis

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Bob Binns of Cleveland John Hay won the State High School Tennis Championship Saturday, becoming the first Negro to win the title.

A junior, Binns defeated Ron Laque of Cincinnati Withrow 7-5, 6-1. Binns reached the finals by ousting top-ranked and defending champion Robin Fry of Springfield North 7-5, 6-3.

Brother Kevin and Mike Senich of Parma grabbed the doubles championship, defeating Ken Brown and Phil Browarsky of Mansfield Senior 6-2, 6-0.

Stefanich All-Star Pin Champ

GARDEN CITY, N. Y. (AP)—Olive Stefanich may never see her husband, Jim, bowl again. She wasn't on hand to see Jim wrap up the 27th National All Star Championship Saturday night. She was home in Joliet, Ill.

"She couldn't get away," Stefanich explained. "But it's probably just as well. When she comes to a tournament, I usually lose and when she stays home, I've won quite a few."

Stefanich, who started slowly in the seven-day, 78-game grind, erased major tournament record when he bowled 40 consecutive games of 200 or more. It broke his own previous mark of 38 in the 1967 Professional Bowlers Association's Tournament of Champions in Akron, Ohio.

Stefanich, 26, won 15 of his 16 games during Saturday's last four rounds of the 12-round finals. His victory margin over Billy Hardwick of Louisville, Ky., was 297 points after trailing Hardwick by 87 points following Friday's action. First prize was $15,000.

Jim Harris Breaks Jesse Owens' Mark

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Jim Harris of Dayton Roth is running in the footsteps of Jesse Owens. In fact, he went just a shade faster than the famed runner did in the 1930s.

Harris turned on the speed in the finals Saturday of the Class AA State High School Track Championships and won the 100 in 9.5 seconds—shattering the 35-year-old record of 9.6 set by Owens.

Harris also won the 440, but his Olympian-type efforts fell short as Cleveland Glenville—led by brilliant Bob Ware—won its fourth straight Class AA title.

Glenville collected 17 points to edge Dayton Roth and Sandusky who finished with 16 each. Kent State High easily won the Class A title, piling up 24 points to only 12 by second place finisher Yellow Springs. Gary Lindstedt paced Kent, being the only double winner Saturday for the small schools.

Lindstedt and Harris were voted the meet's outstanding performers.

Harris and Ware staged a personal duel throughout the day. Harris clipped Ware in the 100. But Ware came back and edged Harris in the 220, which turned out to be the race that gave Glenville the title. Glenville's actual winning margin came in the 220 when Claude Reeves finished fifth, giving the Cavaliers the title by one point.

Harris, a senior, also won the 440 in 47.4, beating Denny Dicke of Upper Arlington, who was clocked in 47.9.

Ware's winning time in the 220 was 21.3. Harris was clocked in the same time, but Ware broke the tape first and got the victory. Ware also anchored Glenville's winning 880-yard relay team.

In addition to Harris' record performance in the 100, three other Class AA records fell, in the pole vault, the two-mile run and the mile relay.

Jerry Klyop of Elvira soared 15 feet, 1¾ inches to break the pole vault mark of 15-1 set by Dave Rimmer of Mount Healthy in 1966.

Leslie Nagy of Niles covered the two-mile run in 9:27.0, bettering the 9:29.9 set by Dick Roski of Cleveland Heights in 1966. Cleveland John Adams won the mile relay in 3:18.2, clipping seven-tenths off the mark set by Cleveland John Kennedy in 1967. Coached by Jim Demo, Glenville was the first school to win four straight titles since Columbus Central won in 1927-30. Cleveland East Tech won championships from 1939-44, but finished in a tie with Cleveland Heights in 1941.

In the small school division, Kent's Lindstedt won the 100 in 9.9 (tying the mark held by four others) and then captured the 440 in 49.4. He also was the anchor man on Kent's winning mile relay team.

Three records were broken in Class A, the shot put, pole vault and 880.

Ron Stephens of Springboro set a new shot put mark with a heave of 57-1½, breaking the 56-11¼ set by Joseph Morgan of Mariemont in 1950. John Worcester of Wellington vaulted 14 feet even, topping the 13-6¼ by Ken Koch of Cuyahoga Heights and Tom Storrer of Archbold, both in 1967.

Brian Peppler of Ada won the 880 in 1:57.6, breaking the 1:58.7 set by Charles Wolfe of Chesapeake last year.

U.S. Blanks Mexico In Davis Cup

By The Associated Press
Clark Graebner and Art Ashe completed a United States 5-0 sweep over Mexico in the American Zone Davis Cup semifinal and stood by to-day waiting to see if Chile or Ecuador will be their next opponent.

Francisco Guzman and Miguel Olvera gave Ecuador a 2-1 lead against Chile with a 3-6, 7-9, 6-3, 11-9, 6-1 doubles victory over Patricio Rodriguez and Patricio Cornejo of Chile Sunday.

Jaime Pinto of Chile meets Guzman and Cornejo opposes Olvera in the final two singles matches today to decide the best-of-5 series in Guayaquil.

An Ecuador victor would mean a rematch of last year's final in which Guzman and Olvera stunned the United States in a tremendous upset before losing later en route to the Challenge Round against defending champion Australia.

Graebner, of New York, crushed Rafael Osuna 10-8, 6-3, 6-2, and Ashe, of Richmond, Va., tumbled Joaquin Loyola Mayo 6-4, 9-7, 6-2 Sunday in their matches at Berkeley, Calif.

The U.S. team now moves on to Charlotte, N.C., for the finals June 7-9.

Spain, Russia, Czechoslovakia, Romania and South Africa also advanced Sunday with victories in the second round of European Zone play.

Spain now meets Great Britain, Russia takes on Italy, the Czechs get West Germany and Roumania and South Africa tangle.

Rain-Curtailed Race Won By Buddy Baker

CHARLOTTE, N.C. (AP) — Big Buddy Baker sat in a rain shower for three hours and one minute Sunday, drove a stock car at moderate speeds for another three hours and four minutes, and walked away $27,450 richer.

Baker's Dodge was in first place when the $152,000 World 600 stock car race at the Charlotte Motor Speedway was stopped by rain after 382.5 miles.

The 6-foot-4, 225-pound Baker had won only one race before Sunday—the National 500, on the same track last year. That race was also the last one over 250 miles to be won by a Chrysler product.

The 44-car starting field took the green flag under threatening skies, and ran for only 108 laps before the rains came. Engines stopped and drivers tensely waited for two hours and three minutes while giant helicopters swooped low over the 1½-mile tri-oval track in an attempt to dry it with the wind from their rotors.

The race began again, but lasted for only 16 laps before the skies opened once more. After another holdup of 58 minutes the drivers returned to the track under a caution flag and completed another 131 laps before the race was called at 7 p. m. EDT.

Donnie Allison, who won the pole position with a record-breaking qualifying run of 159.222 miles per hour in a Ford Torino, finished second, one-half lap behind Baker.

Toledo Driver Wins Little 500 Auto Race

ANDERSON, Ind. (AP)—Kark Busson, Toledo, Ohio, won the rain-interrupted Little 500 auto race Sunday.

The race was halted by rain Saturday night and completed Sunday night.

Busson outdistanced second place finisher Jerry Richert of Forest Lake, Minn., by three laps. Ray Wright of Elkhart, Ind., finished third and Daryl Harrison, Tiffin, Ohio, placed fourth.

Yesterday's Stars

By The Associated Press
PITCHING — Don Drysdale, Dodgers, blanked Houston 5-0 on a six-hitter, tying a National League record with his fourth consecutive shutout.

BATTING — Ernie Banks, Cubs, slammed two home runs for a career total of 450 in a 4-2 victory over San Francisco.

Arkansas Tackle Signs With Steelers

PITTSBURGH — Ernie Ruple, a six-foot-five, 242-pound tackle from the University of Arkansas and a second draft choice, Saturday returned his signed contract to the Pittsburgh Steelers.

Ohio State Girl Wins State Tennis

DAYTON, Ohio (AP)—Ohio State won the singles and doubles championships Sunday in the finals of the Ohio College Women's Tennis Tournament. Both victories were over Miami coeds.

Marmee Fry won the singles, beating Missy Bradley 7-5, 8-6. OSU's Barbara Rollins and Janet Gailus then took the doubles, whipping Miami's Tina Ziegler and Nancy Spencer 3-6, 6-2, 5-1.

Wittenberg University of Springfield hosted the event for 79 coeds from 15 Ohio colleges. But weekend rain forced the tournament to be moved from Wittenberg to indoor courts in Englewood near Dayton.

Rochester Leads IL, Jets Second

By The Associated Press
Rochester split a doubleheader with Toledo Sunday to keep a tight grip on the International League baseball lead. Rochester lost the first game 5-1, but came back to take the nightcap 4-2.

Columbus got rained out in its home game with Jacksonville, but still moved up to second place in the standings, a full game out of first place.

Louisville, who lost both games of a doubleheader to Richmond, dropped out of second place and into third. Richmond took the first game 7-6 and added the nightcap to their victory column by a 2-0 decision on the pitching of Bob Castiglione.

Buffalo and Syracuse split a doubleheader in Buffalo; Syracuse winning the first game 3-2 and the Bisons clobbering the Chiefs 17-4 in the second game.

The first national political convention in the United States was held in 1831 by the short-lived Anti-Mason Party.

5-County Development Organization Formed

A five county nonprofit regional development corporation was formed Thursday evening in Wheeling following a meeting called by the Appalachia Development Office of West Virginia. Approximately 60 representatives from the area attended.

The new organization will be known as the Upper Ohio Valley Development Corp. of West Virginia.

Its purpose is to establish a regional framework "to effectively utilize various development programs that have been made available through passage of significant legislation pertaining to these projects."

Though Jack C. Whiting, acting director of the West Virginia Appalachia Development Office, assured the new organization would not compete with other existing regional planning groups, representatives from both Hancock and Brooke Counties expressed doubts.

Norman C. Ferrari Sr., chairman of SWATS, pointed out that the two-city three-county transportation group had made meaningful progress in its development program and did not wish to be stymied now. He said, "We can't afford to let go now; 60 per cent of the job has been done, and this has come about after five years of hard work."

James Lord, Weirton city manager, noted "there will be a lot of duplication of work being done."

Mr. Ferrari also let it be known that the counties of Brooke and Hancock would not abandon Jefferson County in Ohio in the program in which they are engaged.

Whiting pointed out none of this would occur, in fact the new group would complement the existing organizations, he claimed.

Mayor Rybka pointed out that the state had obtained $56 million in Appalachia funds without such an organization.

Robert Lindsay, superintendent of Brooke County Schools, was named acting chairman of the interim committee until the next meeting June 21 in Wheeling. Lindsay was appointed at the request of Whiting and other officials of the Appalachia Development Office.

Dr. Thomas E. Thomas, of Wheeling was named vice chairman, Mayor Rybka treasurer and George Grodhaus field development officer, secretary.

Also appointed was a bylaws committee to study the list already drafted.

Appointed to this committee from Hancock County was Ray Shaw and Dr. James Flood. The members from Brooke are Thomas Boyd and George Dehnkamp, with Hugo Broccoli and Robert Lindsay alternates.

Whiting said the five-county area was designated as Region 4, with nine such regions to be formed in the state. Seven of these already are functioning, he said.

He explained: "We are not trying to form a super-state, but are trying to make some semblance out of the chaos that exists in federal programs. In doing this we are asking that you forget boundary lines."

In conclusion, Whiting commented, "This has been the hottest of the seven such regional meetings I have attended."

Barring Unforeseen Developments

Nixon Very Confident He Will Get Nomination

PORTLAND, Ore. (AP) — Former Vice President Richard M. Nixon, commenting after months of primarying, says only an unusual combination of circumstances can deny him the Republican presidential nomination.

Barring some dramatic new development that cannot now be foreseen, Nixon said in an interview he is confident he can stand off the thrusts of New York Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller and California Gov. Ronald Reagan and walk off with the prize on an early ballot at the Miami Beach, Fla., convention.

One development which could cloud this optimistic picture, he concedes, would be an unexpected showing by Rockefeller and Reagan in Tuesday's Oregon primary balloting.

Nixon has lowered his sights in this last of the major primaries for the Republican contenders, maintaining that 55 per cent of the GOP vote will be a satisfactory victory. He has been averaging around 70 per cent in other primaries, where the combined Rockefeller-Reagan threat has not been serious.

If he wins in Oregon and adds South Dakota's 14 convention votes in a June 4 primary without further campaigning there, Nixon thinks he will have established a commanding lead in the nomination contest.

Nixon thinks that it might be possible for Rockefeller and Reagan to put together a combination with the favorite sons that could stall his convention bandwagon.

Nixon said if there ever was a chance that the Republican governors would swing their combined weight behind Rockefeller it has evaporated. The GOP governors will meet in Tulsa, Okla., June 14-15 to draft proposed convention platform planks and discuss candidates.

"I will have more governors supporting me than backing Rockefeller," he predicted.

Nixon said he expects a majority of the delegations headed by favorite sons to come over to his camp after a first ballot test of the candidates' standings.

He said, for example, that he regards Illinois, where Sen. Charles H. Percy may be the favorite son of the 58-vote delegation, as "my best state" in the Northern industrial complex.

He said he expects substantial support from Ohio, Michigan, and Massachusetts when the countdown begins. Denied New York and California, Nixon is leaning heavily on Southern delegations for his base of convention operations. He indicated he does not regard Reagan as a serious threat at this time to this base.

Mary McCarthy, 19, Opposing Marches

LONG BEACH, Calif. (AP) — Mary McCarthy, daughter of Sen. Eugene J. McCarthy of Minnesota, says the time for antiwar marches is over.

"I took part in the Pentagon march," said the 19-year-old daughter of the candidate for the Democratic presidential nomination. "But I left when it began to tend toward violence. I don't approve of violence."

"Besides, I think the time for antiwar demonstrations is past. The purpose of demonstrations is to make a point of view known. I think the point has been made."

Warren Says People Want A Better Life

NORTHFIELD, Minn. (AP) — Chief Justice Earl Warren says current divisions in the United States are "outcroppings of the desire of the vast majority of our people for a better life for every American."

"There is a certain cynicism abroad today to the effect that our society has stagnated," Warren said. "I challenge that concept and assert that our country is a young country and has all the attributes of greatness."

Warren received an honorary doctor of humane letters degree Sunday at St. Olaf College.

The E. H. Johns of Findlay say:

"Central electric heating and air conditioning only costs us $1<sup>00</sup> a month more... and it's the best dollar we've ever spent!"

"I know for a fact we only pay a dollar a month more for electric heating and cooling than we paid with our gas furnace and window air conditioner," says Mrs. John.

"And all the comfort, cleanliness, and convenience is worth many times more than a dollar!"

In June, 1966, the Johns installed an electric heat pump—the central unit that heats and cools flamelessly. It now costs them $32 a month—instead of $31—to heat and completely air condition their 7-room home, refrigerate and cook their food, wash their dishes, wash and dry clothes, heat water, and do everything else the convenient total-electric way.

Find out for yourself just how much flameless electric heating would cost in your own home with a free, no-obligation estimate from Ohio Power. You'll probably like it as well as Mr. John, who says, "We've had every type of heating, but this total-electric way is the best yet!"

Out Of The Air

By HAL HUMPHREY

An Awakening At CBS?

The argument over whether there's a shortage of good drama scripts or a shortage of TV guts continues. CBS program chief, Mike Dann, chairs it's the former.

"We've just appropriated our second $500,000 for scripts for 'CBS Playhouse.' Out of the first $500,000 put up two years ago we got five shows — 'The Final War of Oly Winter,' 'Do Not Go Gentle Into That Good Night,' 'Dear Friends,' 'My Father and My Mother' and 'Secrets' — but we bought 21 scripts from professionals and 30 to 35 from, say, let's call them off-Broadway writers," reports Dann.

HE IS SAYING that only five scripts were considered good enough to put on 'the air out of some 50 to 60 submitted and paid for, and except for 'Oly Winter,' the five were written by established playwrights.

Dann doubts that the second $500,000 will bring any bigger percentage of good dramas. Of course, in this instance, we're relying on Dann and his CBS colleagues' judgment of what's good.

"Look at Broadway this year," argues Dann. "No American drama on Broadway was considered important this year except Arthur Miller's 'The Price.' And on Broadway," adds Dann, "the cost of production is about $125,000 compared to our $545,000 for a CBS Playhouse."

DANN also insists that CBS is putting virtually no restrictions on its playwrights and is not shying away from anti-establishment subjects. Some writers claim this is not so, and have the rejections to prove it. "Oh, we take out a line here and there, which we consider in bad taste, like in 'Dear Friends' a line of dialog about eating caviar out of someone's navel was deleted, but generally the writer is on his own," says Dann.

There's been an opening up to subject material on TV the past two years which Dann feels the medium hasn't been given full credit for.

"Two years ago, for example, I would have said we couldn't have talked so openly about homosexuality as Barbara Gel Beddes and Barry Nelson did in 'Secrets,' and I don't believe the movie 'Never On Sunday' could have been put on TV two years ago, either," points out Dann.

IN THE EARLY '60S, Dann admits, TV retrogressed from its Golden Era days of the mid-'50s and lagged behind the audience's tastes, but now he believes TV has learned it no longer can satisfy all TV viewers with the conventional-type programming we've experienced so many years.

Dann who came to CBS in 1958 as V.P. in charge of network programs in New York, says he hopes to be one of five men who've left an indelible imprint on the medium before he's through.

The other four he lists as CBS' Bill Paley, former CBS newsman and a documentarian Fred Friendly, former NBC president Sylvester (Pat) Weaver and Bob Kintner.

DANN PLANS to open CBS' next season with a 9-to-10 Sunday night concert by Vladimir Horowitz with no commercial interruptions. Later in the season he has lined up the Royal Shakespeare Company's "Midsummer Night's Dream," and the following season he hopes to have the same company with Paul Scofield in "King Lear."

"CBS now feels about such programming as it does about its news and documentaries. No matter how much it costs, we'll do it regardless of whether we come out even or ahead on it," says Dann.

There was a report that CBS had lost $1 million this year on its four productions of 'CBS Playhouse,' but Dann says this is not true. That General Telephone & Electronics picked up the whole tab for those four shows done this season.

He would like to do six or seven 'CBS Playhouse' productions in the coming season and has Gore Vidal, Paddy Chayefsky and Reginald Rose working on plays for the series, Dann says.

Don't worry, though, there still is going to be plenty of so-called "conventional" programming on CBS, too.

QUESTION: Why was one of our presidents called "Old Hickory?"

ANSWER: The president who is featured in our picture was born in 1767 in a log cabin near the state line between North and South Carolina. As a boy of 13, he fought in the Revolutionary War and was captured by the British. He was ordered to polish a British officer's boots, but refused, claiming the rights of a prisoner of war. The officer struck him with his sword, giving scars which lasted a lifetime. Orphaned at 14, the boy became a lawyer and was elected to Congress in 1796, finally becoming a justice of the Supreme Court of Tennessee. In 1801 he was a Major General in the Tennessee militia and rose to national fame in the War of 1812. One of his soldiers spoke of him as "tough." "Tough as hickory" replied another, and the nickname "Old Hickory" was bestowed on him. Elected president in 1829, he gave strong leadership and championed the rights of the people. "Let the people rule" was his motto. The name of gallant, brave "Old Hickory" was Andrew Jackson, 7th president of the United States.

Shelley Maloney of Plainfield, Conn., wins a prize for this question. You can win $10 cash plus AP's World Yearbook if your question, mailed to Junior Editors in care of The Review, is selected for a prize.

According To AP Poll

Pennsylvania Delegates Seen Backing Humphrey

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey is the overwhelming presidential choice of committed Pennsylvania Democratic convention delegates, an Associated Press poll showed today.

The poll showed him running 27 to 1 ahead of Sen. Robert F. Kennedy and 3 to 1 in front of Sen. Eugene J. McCarthy.

Pennsylvania, with 162 delegates, will have 130 votes at the party's national convention in Chicago this August. This is about 10 per cent of the number needed to win the nomination. The delegation is the third largest among the states.

The AP mail and telephone survey lists these Pennsylvania votes:

Humphrey 63 3/4, McCarthy 19, Kennedy 2 1/4, uncommitted or unreachable 45.

It is almost a clear majority with a third of the votes still up for grabs.

Humphrey supporters in the big industrial state are headed by former Gov. George M. Leader, and they claim that nearly all of those who still have "no choice" will be with the vice president at the convention's first roll call.

Humphrey, reached at Washington, said he preferred not to comment on the AP poll and would rather wait until the delegates themselves take some definitive action.

This could come today in Harrisburg.

A formal meeting of Pennsylvania delegates has been scheduled—and it is possible the leaders of the state organization, who have tried to maintain official neutrality, may leap on the Humphrey bandwagon.

The strong Pennsylvania support for Humphrey, in a state that has backed a Democrat in every presidential election since 1932 except when Dwight D. Eisenhower ran in 1952 and 1956, is bound to give a powerful thrust to the vice president's nomination drive.

All but one of the McCarthy delegates were elected at the April primary, in opposition to organization-backed choices.

Of the delegates 108 will have 3/4 of a vote each, 54 will have one vote while 10 will have 1/2 vote.

Deep Snow Melts,

Wedding Ring Found

SEATTLE (AP) — Last January, Mrs. Albert James dropped her wedding and engagement rings in the snow when removing a ski glove at Snoqualmie Pass. Forest Ranger Ken White told her he would chart the spot and look for the rings when the snow melted.

Mrs. James had them back Saturday. White's son, Greg, 6, found them.

The Marlboro Music Festival in Vermont will open its 18th season on July 6. Pablo Casals, renowned 91-year-old cellist and conductor, will be in residence for the eighth summer since 1960.

Today In Washington

By The Associated Press
WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield said Sunday the great majority of students should not be condemned for the actions of a few. He said the gulf between students and administration and faculty in ever bigger and impersonal institutions is understandable. The Senate leader said an amendment voted by the House which would permit denial of federal loans to students who engage in disruptive demonstrations "is perhaps both unconstitutional and unworkable."

But I think expulsion, suspension and other means can and should be used if necessary," he said, "to bring about a degree of reorientation and accommodation and understanding on the part of both the students and the faculty."

Mansfield was interviewed by Sen. Hugh Scott on the Pennsylvania Republican's weekly television and radio program.

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Labor Department has announced new requirements that all large contractors on federal projects have "affirmative action" programs to prevent and correct any job discrimination.

Secretary of Labor W. Willard Wirtz said over the weekend the new regulations expand the presidential executive order against discrimination by federal contractors, and will affect all federal contracts in the United States of $10,000 or more.

The department Friday announced preliminary plans to use the presidential order for the first time. Five firms were given until June 4 to request a formal hearing or face loss of present and future contracts.

The firms: Bethlehem Steel Corp., Bethlehem, Pa.; Timken Roller Bearing, Canton, Ohio; Allen-Bradley, Milwaukee, Wis.; B and P Motor Express, Pittsburgh, Pa.; and Pullman Inc., Bessemer, Ala.

South Side Holds Spring Concert, Picks May Queen

Elizabeth Dawson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Dawson of Hookstown, was crowned May Queen by Jason Allison, junior class officer, when the South Side School held its fifth annual band and choral concert at the school gym Friday. Miss Dawson is a senior.

Her attendants were Janet Rogers and Susan Weber.

David Doak was crown-bearer and Ann Finley train-bearer. The senior high school and elementary band, under the direction of George Russi, played several numbers. Malcolm Woodall of Pittsburgh was guest drummer soloist.

The junior high school chorus under the direction of Mrs. Florence Kennedy sang. Third-grade students played selections on the flutophones and the school majorettes performed.

3 Students Emerge From Mock Capsule

VERNAL, Utah (AP) — Three young science students stepped into the fresh night air Sunday after spending 100 hours sealed inside a stuffy space capsule mockup with only dehydrated food to eat.

The boys, all seventh graders aged 14, said their knees were wobbly from being confined so long. A physician pronounced them in good health after more than four days tucked in the capsule.

The endurance experiment was begun by a special science class. Students Terry Johnson, Bert Merkeley and Michael Herring entered the aluminum capsule at 4 p.m. Wednesday following school. They got out at 8 p.m. yesterday.

YMCA Campaigning To Raise Poor Fund

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The National Council of the YMCAs of America is conducting a 60-day campaign to raise at least $24,000 to support the Poor People's Campaign in Washington, it was announced Sunday at the conclusion of the group's 42nd annual meeting here.

The national council urged its 1,800 local YMCAs and individual members to contribute to the drive. The YMCA now is providing the actual work for setting up housing, getting food and other essentials for the thousands of poor people now in Washington.

'Love' Theme Of Exercises

LISBON — The Rev. Donald D. Blom of the Trinity United Presbyterian Church preached on "Love" Sunday evening during baccalaureate exercises at David Anderson High School.

He drew on the Bible and his experiences as hospital chaplain and parish minister for illustrations of three kinds of love: "If," "because" and "in spite of."

The first kind is selfish, the second is flattering but transitory because the loved qualities fade away, but the third is enduring because it does not consider appearance, wealth or accomplishments, the pastor said.

"Isn't it for this kind of love that our hearts are desperately lonely?" he asked. "It means more than food or drink or family. Everyone else is looking for it too. God, through his Son, has shown us the reality of this kind of love. The question is what kind of love do we want, because the kind we want is the kind we will fall for," he concluded.

The Rev. Jerry Painter of the Church of the Nazarene assisted, giving the invocation and benediction and reading the Scripture.

Diane Vokovich, sophomore pianist, played the processional and recessional as the seniors marched in and out in their blue and white robes.

The robed choir directed and accompanied by Leonard Welch, vocal instructor, sang "Grant Me True Courage, Lord" (Bach) and "O Brother Man" (Ringwald).

Four Ways To Unclog Sink Drain

By ANDY LANG
AP Newsfeatures

There are four standard methods of unclogging a sink drain. Fortunately, any or all of them can be utilized by the amateur plumber with an almost certain chance of a successful result.

Only when the stoppage point is a long way from the troubled sink (such as in the outside drainage line) will all these methods fail, in which case you will need the services of a professional.

But that kind of stoppage usually will show up at other plumbing fixtures, rather than a single sink, a tipoff to get a plumber immediately.

Materials that do not come loose with a plunger usually can be handled with a "snake" or auger.

While these words mean the same to most persons — both tools being long, flexible wires with hooks on the ends — the auger is the more powerful, having a crank handle to induce a corkscrew action. A snake is inserted into the drain and jiggled around with an up-and-down movement. In using an auger, the crank handle is turned in a clockwise direction.

IF THE obstruction cannot be dislodged in either of these ways, it is necessary to open the trap, the U-shape pipe under the fixture. It is opened by taking off the cleanout plug at the bottom of the U or if there is no clean-out plug, by unscrewing the nuts that hold the U in place.

Remember that there is water in the drain, so be sure to place a pail or other container under the trap before going to work on it. Use a snake or piece of wire with a hook on the end of it to pull out any clogged material on either side of the trap. Be sure to replace the plug before you turn on the water.

The fourth method of unclogging a drain is with a commercial cleaner.

Since it is a strong chemical, work very carefully. Different brands call for different ways of using, so read and follow the directions to the letter. Such cleaners often are especially and quickly effective if the drain is only partially stopped.

Their purpose is to dissolve accumulated matter, such as grease which has blocked the passage of food particles. Used regularly, they can prevent stoppage.

Carelessness causes drain clogging. Solid materials, such as pieces of vegetables and coffee grounds, belong in the garbage pail. So do fats and greases, which cling to the sides of the pipe and eventually trap the other materials. When fats and greases do go down the drain, as might be the case during the washing of dishes, let the hot water run for a few minutes to flush the pipe thoroughly.

THE EASIEST way to open a clogged sink drain — and the one that should be tried first — is use a rubber plunger of "plumber's friend."

Most home owners keep one around the house. Before using the plunger, plug up any overflow outlet in the sink with a wet rag. Kitchen sinks usually don't have such outlets, but bathroom basins often do.

Place the rubber cup of the plunger directly over the drain opening, which should have at least two or three inches of water over it. Hold the handle with both hands. Press down, then lift the cup very quickly.

The suction action often will dislodge minor obstructions. Sometimes this will work immediately; sometimes you have to repeat the suction movement a dozen or more times.

Screen Door Operation Hinges On Proper Care

Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

Screen doors accumulate their share of troubles, as do most doors.

The combination storm-screen door is up all year-round, is exposed to everything and exerts different amounts of weight on its hinges depending on whether it is carrying the heavy glass inserts or the light screen inserts.

Eventually the door slams too quickly or closes so slowly it never closes completely by itself.

In the former case, the door may become damaged from the slamming and is a sure hazard to heels and hands that may get caught. In the latter instance, a good stiff breeze may catch the door before it closes and blow it back, putting a strain on the hinges.

It comes in contact with the door frame.

If your storm door lacks a door closer, install one right away. Eventually, it will save you the cost of a new door. Get a good closer that can be adjusted. Over the years, you can make the proper adjustments to keep the door closing properly.

Generally, a slight turn of a screw one way or the other will adjust the valve that allows air to escape through a vent on a pneumatic closer.

If the closer cannot be adjusted, or adjusting does not correct a problem, it may be that it is mounted on the door jamb too far away from the door itself. In this case remount the bracket so that it is closer to the door.

holes with wood filler and re-drill.

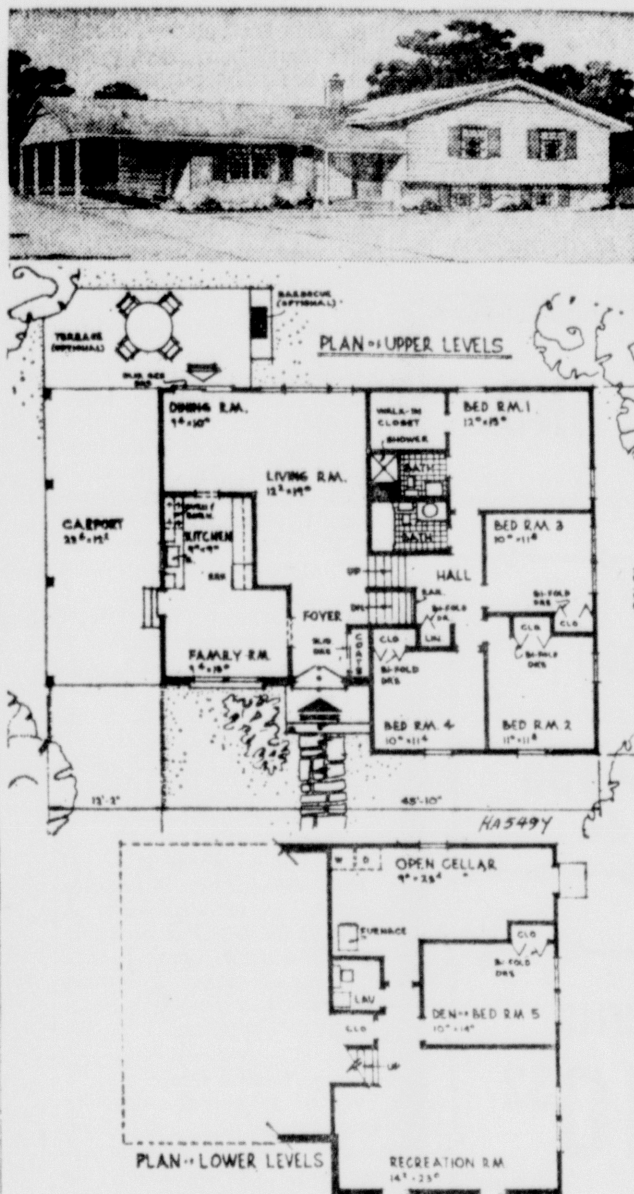

Doors may be out of square with much banging. Metal doors may have loose joints at corners. Take the door down and examine its construction.

Tightening screws at the corners may help. Otherwise you may have to disassemble the rails and replace the corner brace that holds them together.

If fit has gone bad at the door sill, the gasket or bottom rail on the metal door can be adjusted with a screwdriver. A wood door may have to be sanded or planed if tightening the hinges doesn't help.

Metal doors are often set in a metal frame that fits into the opening. This, too, may pull away from the wood underneath. Try tightening the screws.

Sometimes the door will stick inside this frame because the frame has shifted slightly due to settling or warping of the wood within. If the door rubs against the frame, note the spots where rubbing occurs. Hammer the frame at these points, using a block of wood to prevent damage.

BRICK VENEER and wood shingles carefully blend in Plan H45497 to tie together visually the two "wings" typical of split-level houses. Entrance is made through paneled doors from a covered porch. From this point, it's just a step to any area of the house, thus keeping needless traffic to a minimum. The living level features a family room-kitchen combination, in addition to a full-size lower-level recreation room. A side entrance gives convenient access to the carport. Upstairs, served by a wide hall, are four bedrooms. Two baths ease "rush hour" congestion. Lower level contains recreation room, extra bedroom and utility area with an outside door, an important but often neglected convenience. Herman York, 90-04 161st St., Jamaica, N.Y. 11432 designed the home, with 1,520 square feet on the upper levels and 605 on the lower level.

Blazing Guns Greet Guests At Reception

NORWALK, Calif. (AP) — Blazing guns at a wedding reception sent the bridegroom and two friends to hospitals when six young men attempted to crash the reception, sheriff's officers said.

Michael Pena, 17, the groom, and Roy Villalva, also 17, were reported in satisfactory condition at Norwalk Community Hospital after the Sunday morning incident. Danny Browning was treated for an ankle wound at Woodruff Community Hospital and released.

Officers said the shots were fired from a .22-caliber rifle by Valentine Maquez, 18, of Norwalk. He and five others were booked on suspicion of assault with intent to commit murder.

Finnish is not classed as a Scandinavian language. It is related to Estonian, Hungarian and to many Soviet Union dialects.

You Can Save Work If You Cut Out Turf

BY DOUGLAS TOOMEY

The man who takes care of his place without any professional help knows it is impossible to cut close to shrubbery without danger of clipping away at the bottom foliage and eventually spoiling the shape of ornamental pieces.

He also knows that he must get down on his knees with a hand clipper to cut around them. A lawn that can be cut in half an hour will take another half-hour for trimming around the shrubs so that long grass and weeds will not be bunched in with the shrubs themselves and spoil the otherwise neat-looking job. It is these half-hour chores that use up the day and make what should be a quick job a tiresome task.

There is an easy way to avoid this extra work — cut out the turf around a group of shrubs. When the lawn mower reaches a group of shrubs so treated, it can be run around the edge without interrupting your stride.

As soon as a weed or a blade of grass appears within the bare earth circle, it can be plucked out in a second, and the earth need only be raked occasionally to keep the planting looking neat and clean.

Aside from saving much time, these circles improve the general appearance of a place and add an extra touch of finish. As a rule, the bare earth should not exceed one foot from the bottom of the shrubs, for it is not desirable to allow a large expanse of ground to bake out in the sun and affect the root system of the shrubbery.

Another good reason for the outlining method is that the bare ground will naturally be on a lower level than the lawn itself and thus act as a catch-basin for rain or sprinkling.

Students Conduct Laundry Wash-In

LONDON (AP) — Twenty students peeled off their blue jeans and miniskirts Sunday in an attempt to bring friendship to a British laundromat, but police were unfriendly to the demonstrators.

The students stripped to their underwear and put their clothes in the washing machines. Girls wrapped themselves in towels and football sweaters.

"Laundrettes are such dreary places," explained the leader of the wash-in, Nick Flowerdew, as he shivered in his bright red drawers. "Everyone just watches his washing going round and never speaks to anyone else. They should be friendly."

Six policemen broke up the demonstration.

Screen Will Last Long If Given Proper Care

Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

There should be little need for buying screens for your home more than once if you give them proper care and regular maintenance.

Over a period of time you may have to replace the screening material itself, but this should happen rarely.

It is important to keep the frames themselves in good shape. A loose screen joint is easy to repair, but if neglected it could cause the frame to fall apart or the screening to sag and come loose.

With wooden frames, knock the loose joint back in place with a mallet to avoid damaging the frame, then make the joint secure by one of several methods.

SOMETIMES, a corrugated fastener pounded in across the mitered joint will be enough. An angle iron placed inside the corner and held with wood screws will last indefinitely. There are special corner braces that fit on the inside edge of the frame. These show but they are strong.

For an invisible, professional job, use 1/2-inch dowel rods. Drill a 1/2-inch hole through both parts of the joint, cut the dowel to fit the length of the hole, coat the dowel with glue and drive it in flush with a mallet.

Holes occasionally appear in the screen material. Patch with a material of the same metal to prevent corrosion. Fiberglass screen patches can be used on any material.

The patch will have edges formed of wire ends that are bent at right angles to the patch. Place the patch over the hole carefully and then continue bending the wires around so that they secure the patch.

PAINTING of screens is needed only for galvanized screening, now seldom used. If you do have galvanized screens however, better keep painting them. Use a regular, well-thinned screen paint.

Sometimes screening will be so badly damaged it needs replacing. Aluminum and fiberglass are both maintenance free, the former being quite stiff but durable, the other very flexible.

Copper screen is durable, is most expensive and may cause stains on the siding. Though it doesn't need paint, you may want to shellac it to prevent the staining.

You will have to remove all of the old material before installing the new. Carefully remove all the molding from wood frames.

Use a chisel, being careful not to damage either the molding or the frame. With metal frames, screen is held in place with a spline — a flexible material that fits tightly into a groove around the frame. Work a screwdriver under one end of the spline; then raise gently and remove.

ALLOW about an inch or so all around when you get a new piece of screening. If placing in a wooden frame, make certain all the old tacks or staples are removed. Then tack or staple the new material at one end and pull taut.

A good trick to use to make it absolutely taut is to bend the frame slightly. Support each end with scrap lumber and fasten the center down to the work surface with clamps causing the frame to bend in the middle.

With the screening tacked as smoothly as possible, release the clamps and the frame will spring back into its original position, pulling the screen tight.

In a metal frame the screen is placed over the frame and the spline worked back into the channel.

Three Factors Determine Proper Shade In Staining

AP Newsfeatures

Obtaining the desired precise shade in the staining of wood depends on three factors: the color of the stain; the extent, if any, of dilution; and the amount of time between application and wipe-off.

Oil stain continues to be the most popular with the non-professional, possibly because it need not be sprayed on to achieve good results. Some favor application with a brush, some with a rag, preferably a cheesecloth. Our own recommendation is application with a brush, followed by wipe-off with a cloth.

When oil is diluted a little with turpentine, it produces a lighter shade.

When the lightest possible shade is desired, there should be more turpentine than stain — and then, when the mixture is applied, it should be wiped off immediately. Whether you wipe off at once or in 30 seconds can make a big difference in the final color.

Because the amount of time the stain is permitted to remain on the wood so vitally affects the result, it is important that testing precede the actual application. This can be done on scrap wood of the same kind as the piece of furniture being finished or, what usually is more practical, on the underside of the actual item.

It may seem a little ridiculous, but if you're the type who wants a perfect result, utilize a watch with a second hand. You can then time each test. Apply the stain to a small area, wait exactly 10 seconds, then wipe it off. Too dark? Apply it again a few inches away. This time, wait only 5 seconds. In this way, when you obtain exactly the shade you want, you'll know how many seconds you must wait before the wipe-off when you begin the job.

Since a stain will appear a bit darker after the final coat has been applied, you should make it a little lighter than you want it to be.

A stain requires a sealer to prevent it from bleeding through the final coat. However, many modern stains have sealers within themselves and so require no separate application. Be sure to read the instructions on the container to determine whether a sealer is necessary and, if so, which kind.

Protests Protestors

CHARLESTON, W. Va. (AP) — Sixteen demonstrators are camped on the State Capitol lawn. Fifteen of them are fasting to protest what they consider inadequate welfare benefits. The other demonstrator is protesting the presence of the protesters — and he's driving home his point by barbecuing mouth-watering steaks in front of the hungry fasters.

Buyers Place Steel Orders

CLEVELAND (AP) — Some steel buyers are placing post strike orders for August delivery, seeking to be first in line for deliveries when an expected work stoppage ends, Steel Magazine said today.

"Should a steelworkers' strike be averted, or prove to be short-lived, consumers figure they can cancel the orders," the weekly journal of metalworking said.

A pickup in demand for steel from the automobile manufacturers reflects strong auto sales and production, while appliance makers and other hard goods manufacturers are showing more buying interest than had been expected, the magazine said.

"New orders are developing sufficient volume to assure the filling of open spaces in June and July rolling mill schedules," it continued. "At the same time, steelmakers are starting to work off their large order backlog."

Steel said relatively little order duplication among the mills is noted and consequently, few cancellations by consumers are likely as long as a strike is threatened.

"This reflects unusual consumer complacency about supplies in the face of a threatened work stoppage," the trade magazine said. "Some of this stems from the fact substantial producing capacity would not be immediately affected by a strike in August and large steel service center stocks will be available."

Heavy imports also can be depended upon to bridge supply gaps, it added.

The magazine said steel production slipped last week for the second straight week, estimating the output at 2.83 million net tons.

Steel's composite price on No. 1 heavy melting grade of steel-making scrap remained at $25.33 a gross ton for the third straight week.

Refuge In Swaziland

MBABANE, Swaziland (AP) — This tiny landlocked colony, Britain's last outpost in Africa and due for independence in September, is giving refuge to 93 members of African nationalist organizations, a police special branch spokesman disclosed. There are 37 refugees from Frelimo, three from Udenamo, 20 from the Pan African Congress, 30 from the African National Congress and three from the African Resistance Movement.

Hotel Sites Scarce

HONOLULU (AP) — Off-Waikiki hotel development is assured by the very scarcity of prime hotel sites remaining near the beach, says Clifton Terry, president of the Bank of Hawaii. Terry says only five prime hotel sites remain in the Waikiki area and three of them are already committed for development. And, Terry adds, efficient hotel-operators will not be interested in secondary sites.

Here's Slick Solution To A Tiny Problem

By DOUGLAS TUOMEY

During the early part of summer, many home owners in the suburbs and in country regions are plagued with swarms of insects so small that they can penetrate the mesh of the average screen from an open window or door.

And if cooking is going on in the house, they follow along the trail with still greater speed and in greater numbers. These swarms are, fortunately very short-lived, but, while still alive, they can be a great nuisance.

The screening used in most houses is a standard mesh size, made with due consideration for the fact that a closer or finer mesh would prevent the free circulation of air, and it is helpless against the type of insect in question.

However, a method has been devised to reduce the size of the mesh temporarily during the small-insect season. This consists of wiping the mesh freely with a heavy oil such as castor oil or linseed oil.

This reduces the openings in the screen for more than might be imagined and, in addition to that, an insect need only touch the tip of a wing to the oily wires to become stuck fast.

The oil should not be applied so heavily as to drip from the screen. It will not harm the wire or the paint of the screen frames, and when it is no longer required, it can be removed with a cloth dampened in turpentine.

The procedure outlined here has been tried for many years and found extremely effective as well as economical. It is a sound answer to a small but aggravating problem.

In Vietnam

Clothing Donations Sold On Da Nang Black Market

DA NANG, Vietnam (AP) — Some clothing donated by Americans to the Catholic Relief Services for use by the Vietnamese is being sold in the Da Nang black market.

Men and women rummage through the shirts, slacks and occasional sweaters spread over tables in the black market stalls. The customers pick out the clothes they want, haggle amiably over the price with several women clerks and close the deal.

Three shipping bags were seen this weekend in the stalls. They were marked "From Catholic Relief Services, U.S. C.C., U.S.A., donated by Catholics of U.S.A. Not to be sold or exchanged."

Three black marketeers said the clothes were obtainable for 5,000 piasters, or about $42, per 220-pound bag marked "Catholic Relief Services."

At least 200 such bags have been bought in the last 10 days sale in the Da Nang black market, these sources said.

The average profit on each bag is about 1,000 piasters, or $8.40, they said.

The regional director for the private agency in the five northern provinces, Matt D'Arcy, was not available for immediate comment.

Father Nguyen Khac Tuan, executive director for the service in Da Nang, said he did not know of the black market activity and if it did exist he had no idea how it came about.

The Catholic Relief services in Vietnam deal on a large scale, assisting upward of 100,000 refugees and needy in the five northern provinces with gifts of clothing and food. One source said the service has provided victims of the Tet offensive last February in Hue with 2,000 100-kilo bags of clothing. A kilogram is 2.2 pounds.

Glider Plane Crashes Near End Of Flight

SANTA PAULA, Calif. (AP) — Within sight of home after a 9,000-mile flight from Europe, Mira Slovak's sailplane crashed while a big welcome waited. He was gravely injured.

Two thousand persons and a victory barbecue were ready at Santa Paula Municipal Airport Sunday to welcome the adventurous 31-year-old glider pilot back from his long flight across the Atlantic and North America.

It was 30 seconds to go in the previously uneventful flight for Slovak, the world's champion hydroplane pilot in 1958 and 1966.

The big-winged red and white glider, powered by a tiny German engine, settled in over the east runway and touched down out of sight. Seconds later came word the "Spirit of Santa Paula" had crashed into a 20-foot drainage ditch below a bluff.

Dr. Ernest Carlson said the former Czechoslovakian air force pilot suffered four fractured vertebrae, broken ribs, internal injuries and concussion. He was in Santa Paula Community Hospital.

A gust apparently caught the sailplane causing a wingtip to strike the ground, airport officials said. The bluff had the crash from the crowd at the airport.

Group Elects New Officers

A lumber industry executive from Yakima, Wash., who began his career as a logger, is the new president of the National Forest Products Association.

James D. Bronson, 63, a director of the Boise Cascade Corp., was chosen for the top post during the board of directors meeting which climaxed the four-day 66th annual meeting of NFPA, a Washington, D. C., national federation representing the nation's forest products industry.

Bronson, who was elected first vice president of NFPA in May 1967, succeeds Russell H. Ellis of Willits, Calif., president of the Willits Redwood Products Co., who was named chairman of the board of the Association.

Other officers elected include: Loran L. Stewart of Eugene, Ore., first vice president; C. Russell Johnson, of San Francisco, regional vice president; Frank R. Gilchrist of Gilest, Ore., regional vice president; Norman Rogers of Ferriday, La., regional vice president, and Robert C. McMillan of New Westminster, B. C., regional vice president. Thomas J. McHugh of Boston was re-elected treasurer.

More Efforts Made To End Nigerian War

KAMPALA, Uganda (AP) — Negotiators from Biafra and Uganda sat down today in a final effort to salvage talks aimed at ending Nigeria's 10-month-old civil war.

Sir Louis Mbanefo, head of the Biafran team, and Nigerian delegation leader Chief Anthony Enahoro met with President Milton Obote of Uganda and Commonwealth Secretary Arnold Smith.

Mbanefo had threatened to take his delegation back to Biafra because of repeated delays in getting down to the question of a cease-fire.

The Biafrans have complained that the Nigerians delayed the meeting a half hour Sunday, 90 minutes Saturday and one hour Thursday.

Enahoro said the delays resulted from the disappearance Thursday of a Nigerian confidential secretary. He said Lagos had at first ordered him to hold off the talks pending a report on the missing man. Later, he said, he received orders to continue without the secretary.

Nigeria insists there will be no cease-fire until the Biafrans give up their claim to sovereignty.

It May Leave Salty Taste In Youth Mouth

CHICAGO (AP) — This should leave a salty taste in your mouth.

The per capita salt consumption in the United States has risen from only 97 pounds a year in 1910 to more than 365 pounds annually.

W. E. Dickenson, president of the Salt Institute, told the association's executive committee that he expects salt consumption in the United States and Canada to rise 60 per cent by 1975.

Salt production in this country was a record 36.5 millions tons in 1966; 4.6 million tons were produced in Canada.

About two-thirds of all salt production — dry salt and brine — goes into the chemical industry, as the starting point for manufacture of chlorine and soda ash.

These are the basic chemicals used in the manufacture of scores of products, including plastics, paper, rubber, explosives, dyes, soap, nylon and fertilizers.

No immigrants from countries other than the United States, Great Britain and France are admitted into Canada by immigration officers unless they have prospective employment, or have Canadian sponsors.

Motorist, 29, Fined $25 In Bid To Evade Officer

A 29-year-old motorist accused of attempting to evade an officer after he had been arrested on a reckless driving charge paid fines and costs totaling $90 today in Municipal Court.

Matt I. Marcum of Lisbon St. was fined $25 and costs on a charge of failure to comply with the lawful order of an officer and $50 and costs on a reckless operation charge. He pleaded guilty to both counts.

Patrolman Jack Strobel said he pursued Marcum on Dresden Ave. early Sunday at speeds up to 80 miles an hour and observed the defendant crashing two red traffic lights. He said he finally halted Marcum several hundred yards outside the city limits, advised him he was under arrest for reckless driving and told him to drive to headquarters.

Instead, Marcum fled along old Route 30, up the Westfield Rd. to Route 267 and then turned his auto into a driveway and stopped it, the officer reported. Judge Samuel M. Chertoff, imposing the two fines, commented that it was "a very expensive experience" for Marcum. The arrest was timed at 3:26 a.m. yesterday.

FIVE MORE drivers were fined today and two forfeited appearance bonds. Bill C. Barnhart of Park Way Ext. was fined $20 and costs on a charge of speeding 60 miles an hour in a 35-mile zone on W. 8th St. He was cited Sunday at 1:46 a.m. by Patrolman David Huffman.

Curtis F. Blake of 101 Washington St., Newell, was fined $5 and costs on a charge of crashing a traffic light at W. 7th and Jefferson Sts. The judge set a hearing June 6 on a second charge of driving without an operator's permit. Blake told the court he was unaware his permit had expired May 1. He was cited Sunday at 5:12 a.m. by Patrolman Arthur Peters.

Melvin L. Norris of the Congo Rd., Newell, was fined $20 and costs on a charge of speeding 80 miles an hour in a 70-mile zone on the Freeway. He was cited Saturday at 9:25 p.m. by the Ohio Highway Patrol.

James R. Ross of 535 Riverside Ave., Wellsville, paid a fine of $15 and costs on a charge of speeding 65 miles an hour in a 50-mile zone on Route 7. He

A tornado struck Springfield, Ohio, Sunday, knocking out electrical power in 1,800 homes, uprooting trees and blowing the roof off one house. No injuries were reported.

Torrential rains struck parts of Texas, Ohio and North Carolina. Flooding limited traffic and closed highways in Indiana, Wisconsin and Ohio.

outdoor chefs are very fussy!

Ever since the outdoor cooking fad began,
we've been catering
to the special needs of outdoor chefs.

Over the years, we've satisfied scores of thousands.
Many, many find just the steak, chops or chicken they want in our self-service meat departments.

Others have specific needs . . .
the steak must be 2 1/4" thick, the chops double thick and so forth.
That's no problem.

If you don't see it...just ask. We'll be happy to help you.

One other reason we're so popular with "backyard barbecuers" . . .
the quality of our "Super-Right" Meats.

Quality so high, some meat graded U.S. Choice just isn't perfect enough to be "Super-Right" Meat.

Is this a good reason for shopping A&P? It's one of many.
